New three-year rubbish contract awarded in city

By HENRY CANTIN

A new three-year rubbish collection contract that would net taxpayers a three-year savings of more than $100,000 has been formally approved by the Romulus City Council.

The new rubbish collection contract has been awarded to the American Rubbish Disposal of 5757 N. Lilley Rd., Plymouth.

The new contract with the Plymouth firm calls for full weekly pickups of rubbish in the city at bid price of 38 cents per unit per week.

The City of Romulus presently had 5,378 rubbish collection stops, including residential and commercial.

The roll call vote of the City Council on approving a three-year contract with American was 4-2. Voting for contract approval were Council President Jimmie Stewart, Councilmen Edmund W. Bizek, Ellis T. Pennington and Brooker R. Edwards. Voting against the award were Councilmen Wiliam M. Oakley and James C. Stewart.

An earlier motion calling for a one-year contract with American, made by Oakley and supported by Stewart, was defeated.

The contract award to American calls for the filing with the city of a letter of credit and bond guaranteeing contract fulfillment.

A representative of the American firm told the council these terms would be met.

Two firms had submitted bid proposals for the rubbish collection contract. The firms had submitted bids on a one-year, two-year and a three-year contract...

The American firm submitted a unit price bid of 38 cents for a three-year contract, 39 cents for two-year contract and 40 cents for a one-year contract.

Canejo Trucking Inc. of 16321 Dodge St., Romulus, the only other bidder, submitted a bid proposal of 42 cents for a three-year contract, 41 cents for a two-year contract and 40 cents for a one-year contract. Canejo was last year's rubbish contractor.

For a 100 per cent pickup, the unit price of American for a three-year contract remains the same, at 38 cents per pickup.

The Canejo firm requested an additional eight cents or a total of 52 cents per pickup.

The total reported cost for a three-year contract to the Canejo firm would amount to $419,384 as against a total of $318,808 for American.

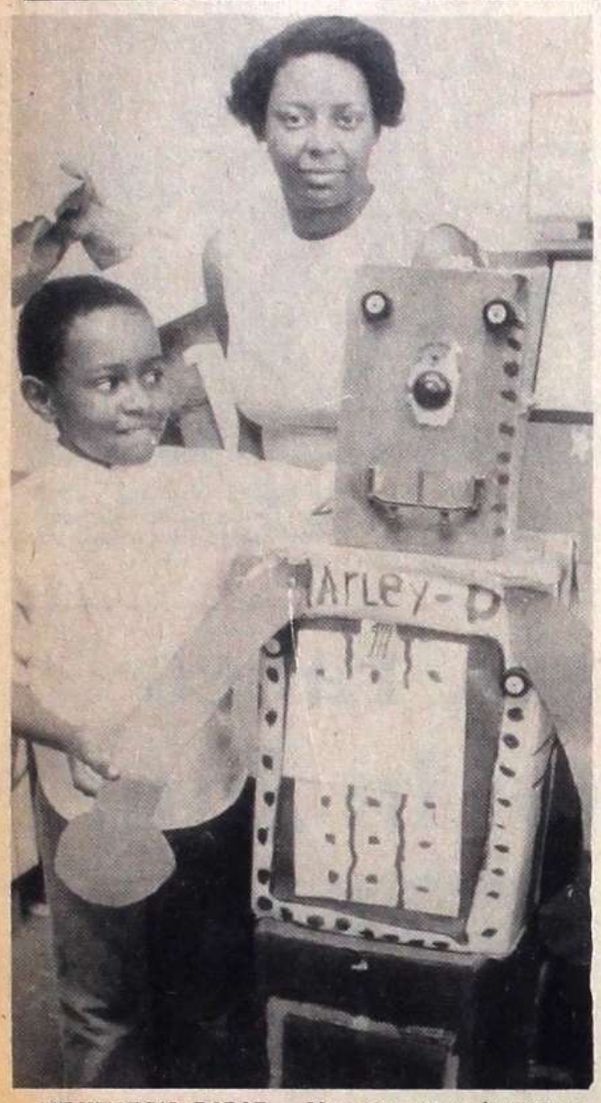
The American firm, it was reported to City Council, maintains its own rubbish disposal site which can be used for the next 10 years, whereas the Canejo firm transports its rubbish collections to Sumpter Township.

Mayor Hyle J. Carmichael hailed the new contract, which will now provide the city with a complete weekly pickup. It will also eliminate the annual Clean-Up Month program pickups.

He reported Romulus is currently in the process of a city-wide clean-up program. Plans are being formulated for an all-out campaign to keep Romulus clean.

Carmichael also reported the city is presently having a problem of rubbish dumpers, including "outsiders," in some areas of the city.

He warned the police and DPW crews have been alerted, as well as residents, to be on the lookout for rubbish dumpers, who, when apprehended will be proscecuted under the city's rubbish ordinance.



MECHANICAL ROBOT — More than 80 projects were entered in this year's science fair at the Beverly Elementary School in Romulus. The exhibit, held last Wednesday, drew a large crowd to see such projects as this mechanical robot, flanked by fourth grader Benjamin Flake and his teacher, Mrs. Mildred Washington.

Time draws near for stadium suit decision

By HENRY CANTIN

The Michigan Supreme Court is expected to make a final decision between June 8-19 on a lawsuit filed in Wayne County Circuit Court seeking to halt the construction of Detroit's proposed $126 million riverfront multi-sport stadium.

The state's high court has agreed to hear an immediate appeal requested by Gov. William G. Milliken to rule on the constitutionality of $126 million in bonds sold last month by the Wayne County Stadium Authority to erect the stadium.

Wayne County Circuit Court Judge Blair Moody Jr. began hearing the law suit last week.

The court suit opposes the bond sale on the grounds the stadium is not feasible economically and would be a burden to Wayne County taxpayers.

The Supreme Court has ordered Judge Moody to deliver the facts in the case to Lansing by June 1 and has scheduled oral arguments in the case on June 8 before rendering its decision.

The governor's appeal to the high court was a rare one. Such a move on the part of the governor is authorized under a little-used Michigan court rule allowing the governor to request the action in cases that may adversely affect the public interest if delayed.

The Wayne County suit was filed by the City of Belleville and its Mayor, Royce E. Smith, and two Grosse Pointe Woods counselors, Marc Allen and William R. Kelley.

'Witnesses' hold assembly

The Belleville Congregation of Jehovah's Witnesses has announced plans for its forthcoming circuit assembly June 9-11 at the Hillsdale High School in Hillsdale.

This three-day Christian assembly, a semi-annual affair, will include 22 congregations from part of southeastern Michigan.

The theme chosen for the occasion, "Conscious of Our Spiritual Needs," is very fitting in view of the present worldly trend away from true worship of God. It is based on the scripture text at Matthew 5:3.

Friday evening (June 9) at 6:35 p.m., the program will begin with a welcome address given by D.P. Biegler, "Are You a Spiritual Person?" Mr. Biegler is the district minister of Jehovah's Witnesses for Michigan. Following this address, a model ministry school will be held at 7:15 p.m., including students of various ages from six different congregations as participants.

Arthur G. Stevens, circuit minister of the attending congregations, will then have oversight of a portion of the program following the subject theme, "Gathering Together to Hear God's Word." Talks, discussions, and short dramas will be used to illustrate points related to this subject.

There will be a baptismal service at 9:15 a.m. on Saturday.

The keynote address of the assembly, "Are You 'Marked' For Survival?" will be given by Mr. Biegler on Sunday afternoon. The public is invited to attend.

Two redevelopers okayed in Romulus

The Romulus City Council has formally approved the appointment of two firms as redevelopers of the first phase of the city's urban renewal program.

The resolution calling for the designation of the redevelopers for the Wayne-Beverly Renewal Project 1 was approved by the City Council at its May 23 council meeting.

Designated as the developers for the single family residential structures slated for the initial phase consisting of 175 acres of land are Hi-Fashion Homes Inc., of Detroit and the Bailey-Kinley Associates, Inc. of Ann Arbor.

The two firms were chosen from 10 proposed redevelopers who were studied by a review committee consisting of members of the 25-member District Council of the urban renewal program, the Romulus Planning Commission and the City Council.

Urban Renewal Director George Wilhelmi and City Attorney John E. Young have been instructed by the City Council to prepare a contract pursuant to the regulations of the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD) and to present the contract to the council for final approval.

Wilhelmi reported there are 280-single family lots in the 175-acre land site. The estimated cost of the land to be purchased by the developers for redevelopment is $900,000.

Wilhelmi also reported the total private development in the first phase of the city's total urban renewal program will be in the neighborhood of $8.5 million.

Advisory busing vote faces Romulus voters

An advisory vote proposition on cross-district busing will be on the ballot on the June 12 school election in Romulus.

The school district's voters will be asked to voice their opinion on the cross district busing proposition in addition to casting ballots on their choice of candidates to fill two four-year posts on the school board.

The voters also will be asked to approve a one mill ($1) property tax levy for the establishment and contracting for the operation of an area vocational - technical education program. The vocational - technical education program tax levy is being proposed by the Wayne County Intermediate School District.

The following candidates have filed nominating petitions for the two school terms that expire this June. They are:

Jack A. Bath of 32115 Bruce St. and Hulen Yates of 15555 Colbert St., and the two incumbents, Gervazio Canejo of 16321 Dodge St. and Davis B. Draper of 11019 Elmview St., whose terms expire this year.

At the May 23 session of the Romulus Board of Education, the question of placing an advisory busing vote on the proposition was approved.

The voters will be asked: "Do you favor court ordered, forced cross-district busing?"

Persons seeking to cast ballots must be over 18 years old, a resident of Michigan for six months and of the City of Romulus on or before the fifth Friday prior to the election date.

In addition, each person voting must be a registered elector of the city. Romulus has 11 voting precincts.

The location of precincts can be obtained by calling the city clerk's office, 941-0666.

Senior housing study eyed

The Romulus City Council has concurred with the request of the Romulus Senior Citizens Club to begin a feasibility study for a senior citizen housing complex in Romulus.

City Clerk Leonard J. Folmar was instructed by the City Council to send a communication to the proper city officials to proceed with the study.

The council requested that when the study is completed, it be submitted to the council for its review.

CUFA asks to use old township hall

A request made by the Communities United for Action (CUFA) to use the old Romulus Township Hall, located at 36572 Goddard Rd., Romulus, for a CUFA office has been granted by the Romulus City Hall.

The council's approval for six months usage hinges on a feasibility investigation to be made by City Attorney John E. Young on the former township hall.

The council was told by CUFA representatives that if CUFA is granted use of the structure it would provide its own maintenance facilities.

Romulus Building Inspector Clayton W. Meldrum reported only the lower floor of the old township hall is safe and available to CUFA. The second floor is boarded up and can not be used by CUFA unless it meets city code requirements, Meldrum reported.

Young is to prepare a legal opinion on the requirements of insurance and maintenance responsibility.

IN TUNE WITH TIMES — Beverly Elementary School students proved last week they're in tune with the times with such projects as this space station, one of 82 exhibits at the school's second annual science fair. Inspecting the project are (from left) third graders Thomas Rusan, Rodney Cofield, Mrs. Juanita Williams, teacher aide, and Aaron Johnson. Winners will be announced later.

Romulus joins stadium suit

The Romulus City Council has approved a resolution formally voicing its opposition to the construction of Detroit's proposed $126 million riverfront domed stadium.

Romulus is the third community in as many weeks to take formal action in opposing the proposed stadium. Huron and Van Buren Townships have adopted similar resolutions.

All three communities are now supporting the legal position of the City of Belleville and its Mayor, Royce E. Smith, in their battle against Wayne County Board of Commissioners.

A Wayne County Circuit Court suit, initiated by Mayor Smith and two Grosse Pointe Woods investment counselors, Marc Allen and William Ross Kelley, challenging the use of tax money for the proposed stadium financing is currently being heard by Circuit Court Judge Blair Moody Jr.

The suit, which seeks an injunction halting the proposed stadium development, contends the sale of bonds by the Wayne County Stadium Authority is public funding of a private business.

The bonds under the proposed financing would be guaranteed by the full faith and credit of Wayne County.

License change okayed

Alexander Dul, owner and operator of the Shady Hollow Golf Club, located at 34777 Smith Rd., Romulus, has requested the Romulus City Council to approve an amendment to his application for one of the City's new Class C liquor licenses.

Dul, whose original application for a new full year Class C license already had been recommended by the City Council, requested that Kathleen A. Dul be added to the license as a partner. The council unanimously approved the request.

A request to grant his golf club a permit also was approved by the Council.

Dul was one of many applicants who has applied for one of the city's five new Class C licenses alloted the city by the Michigan Liquor Control Commission as a result of population increase.

The council has made its recommendations on the five licenses and has forwarded the information to the MLCC.

CHOIR CONCERT - The Romulus Senior High School Choir presented a musical program at the school auditorium Thursday night. The one-hour choir concert presented several selections, including solo performances. A view of the high school choir is shown. The concert was under the direction of Mrs. Patricia Mayberry, musical instructor at the high school.

Irish festival Friday

The enthusiastic Irish of Detroit will start the city's Summer of International Festival series at 6 p.m., Friday.

The Irish Festival, running through Sunday, will bring Gaelic authenticity to the Civic Center riverfront site behind Cobo Hall. Mayor Roman S. Gribbs said, "I am looking forward to participating in the opening ceremony of the Irish festival and sampling the culture."

More than 150 teenagers dressed in costumes from various Irish groups will add color to the downtown scene. Music will be supplied by three singing groups who have come directly from Ireland to entertain admission-free on the large, lighted stage at the west end of the site.

They are the Freemen, Ireland's Traveling People, and the Irish Rebels.

True Irish food will also be available. Irish coffee, beers and wines will be sold in the new sturdy booths; as will be Irish soda bread, Brnbrack (a fruit and brown sugar cake), cornbeef and stew.

Among the many Irish souveniers available for purchase will be delicately carved walking canes called "Black Tongue Sticks" which many believe to be talismen (good luck charms). Also expected to be very popular are shillelaghs, another type of luck-producing instrument. Hand-knit sweaters made from sheep's wool, vases, and art relics from various Irish groups will be available.

Festival hours are 6 to 11 p.m., Friday, and noon to 11 p.m. Saturday and Sunday.

Festival coordinators, Mary Ball and Richard Fanning, said that directional signs leading to the festival site have been placed on all the major access roads by the Department of Streets and Traffic. These signs will help improve traffic flow leading to the site.

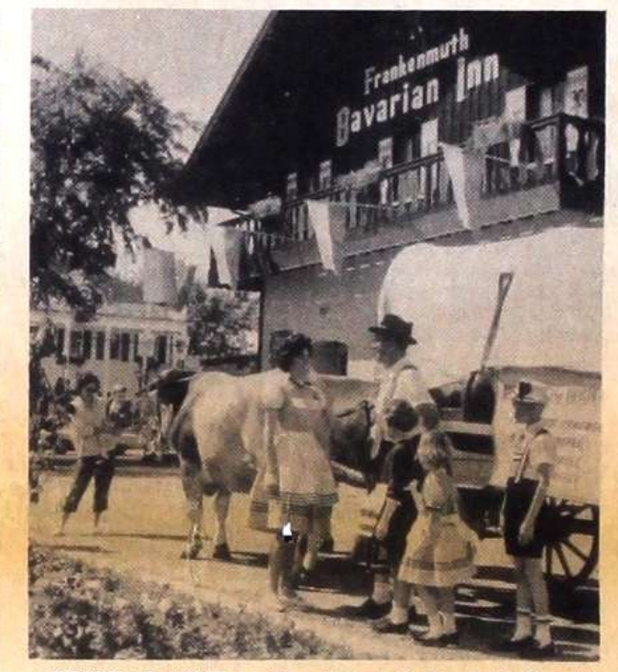
Visitors to Frankenmuth's Bavarian Festival, June 11-17, will enjoy a variety of daily activities plus special events scheduled during the week long celebration. Following the opening parade on Sunday, June 11, the center of activity will be in Heritage Park. For flavor there will be bratwurst and sauerkraut and polka bands to keep things on a lively note.



FESTIVAL TIME — The charm of old world Bavaria comes to life during Bavarian Festival Days at Frankenmuth. The festival, June 11-17, is complete with bratwurst and beer, the glockenspiel and polka bands.

The flash of muskets, the roar of cannon and Gatling gun intermingled with stirring tunes of the fife and drum bring back American frontier days at the Muzzle Loaders Festival, Greenfield Village, June 17-18. Hundreds of colorful costumes, frontier scouts and Civil War soldiers add authenticity to this impressive, and popular, annual event.

There's more to beauty than just a pretty face as the 35 contestants for the title of Miss Michigan will verify. The four-day pageant will be climaxed on Saturday, June 24, in the L.C. Walker Arena, Muskegon. The winner will then go on to Atlantic City to vie for the glamorous title of Miss America.

Competition of a different sort, for an equally coveted trophy, takes place Sunday, June 25 at the running of the Gold Cup Race for unlimited hydroplanes on the Detroit River. These are the world's fastest propeller-driven powerboats. The race attracts boats, drivers and owners from all over the United States.

Other events scheduled between June 1 and 15 include a Fishing Derby at South Haven; Michigan State Speed Championship Roller Skating at Midland; Flea Market and Antique Sale at Wyandotte; Grand National ATV Racing Championships, Monroe; and the Great Muskegon River Canoe Race from Evart to Big Rapids. Saginaw will host the Antique Auto Festival and there will be an Antique Auto Tour from Grand Rapids to Kalamazoo ... Battle Creek will hold a Little Folks Fair and the Tawas River Canoe Race will be held at East Tawas.

During the last half of the month, Rockford holds their Start of Summer Celebration and it will be Red Cedar Jubilee time at Williamston. The 5th annual Invitational Women's Track and Field meet will be held in Midland, June 17. This is an AAU sanctioned track meet for girls and women and one of the largest outdoor meets of its kind.

Father's Day events feature a Fishing Derby at Bergland and Boat Drag Races at Ypsilanti, followed closely by the Michigan Amateur Golf Tournament at Charlevoix, June 20-24.

Winding up the month will be the International Festival at Pontiac featuring ethnic gifts, food, entertainment and craft demonstrations; the Memorial Race from East Tawas to Port Huron and back; National Amateur Archery Championships at Grayling and the Seaway Festival at Muskegon.

It's a full month of fun for the whole family. For a free listing of dates and events scheduled for June through October, 1972, write for a copy of the Michigan Calendar of Travel Events available from the Michigan Tourist Council, Lansing, 48926.

Della Reese appearing at Michigan Palace

Della Reese is appearing at Sam Hadous' Michigan Palace through Saturday.

Miss Reese, a native of Detroit, began her career by appearing with various local gospel groups. When she began touring with such stars of pre-Soul as Dina Washington, her talents were recognized, and it wasn't long until she was back in Detroit as a "headliner."

Recordings came next and a chance at daytime television. Her Della Reese Show clicked so well that it was carried over for several seasons.

Her near-tragic accident of last year kept her out of the limelight for months, but she had regained enough of her vitality to garner excellent reviews and audience response at Hadous' Plymouth nitery.

Miss Reese is backed by the Johnny Trudell Orchestra, which also plays for dancing as well as bringing on the Michigan Palace's emcee, Fat Bob, the Singing Plumber.

Upcoming on the Michigan Palace's entertainment calendar are the Four Tops. The act comes in for a full week on Monday.

The Palace is located at 238 Bagley Ave.

Romulus Jaycees honor five

Five Romulus residents have been honored for "outstanding community service" by the Romulus Jaycee Club.

The Jaycees presented three Distinguished Service Awards, one Certificate of Merit and named their recipient of the club's Outstanding Young Educator award.

The presentations were made at last Tuesday night's meeting of the Romulus City Council. The persons honored by the Jaycees were:

Elmer Johnson, 79, of 37600 Tyler Rd., Romulus, co-founder and first president of the Romulus Progressive Club, who was presented with Distinguished Service Award.

Johnson, a retired tool and die maker, served on the former Romulus Township Board of Review and was one of the leaders on the petition committee for cityhood for Romulus (Romulus became a city in May, 1970). He is a member of the Romulus Homeowners Association and Romulus Goodfellows Association. Under his leadership, the Romulus Progressive Club has given $300,000 to the citizens of Romulus.

Earl L. Lamb, 59, of 29745 Hanover St., Westland, assistant principal at Romulus Senior High School, also was presented with a Distinguished Service Award. Lamb has been assistant principal at the high school for the last four years and has 21 years of service with the Romulus Community School District.

He is head of the Romulus Drug Use and Abuse Council and director of the new Romulus Help Center. He is the organizer of the "Hire a Kid" program at the high school.

Mrs. Florence Klein of 37207 Ecorse Rd., Romulus, founder of the Romulus Helping Hand Thirft Shop, located in the basement of the Special Services Building of the Romulus School District, was presented with a Distinguished Service Award.

Mrs. Klein has been the director and worker of the Helping Hand Thrift Shop for 10 years. The shop's function is to donate clothing and household goods to those in need and to assist them in every way possible.

The Jaycees' "Outstanding Young Educator" award was presented to E.L. Sheffield, 31, of Julie Drive, Romulus.

Sheffield is the director of the Industrial Arts and Vocational Training Department at Romulus High School.

He has initiated one of the "finest auto shop programs in the area," according to the Jaycees. This program allows students to develop job skills they can use upon graduation.

Charles Detloff, 30, of 9501 Michael St., Romulus, an art illustrator, recieved a certificate of Merit. He has been the force behind the renovation of the Romulus Homeowners Association.

His volunteer community service includes active participation in the Romulus Goodfellows, Romulus Homeowners Association, Family Neighborhood Advisory Council, Romulus Association for Improved Housing, Romulus Community School Citizens Advisory Board and the Romulus City Planning Commission.

ROMULUS RESIDENTS RETURN HOME — Mrs. Ethel Horne of 34912 Joan St. and Mary L. Carter of 6337 Chamberlain St. recently returned home from a cruise aboard the luxury steamship Ariadne. They sailed from Miami with a call at Nassau, which included time for shopping and swimming and a Bahamian night.

New officers installed

All good things must come to an end, and so it was with the 1971-72 Romulus Jaycee year.

The Jaycees ended their year by installation of officers and the presentation of awards for outstanding service by local members.

In addition to the regular Romulus Jaycee members, special guests were District vice-president Larry Lekity and his wife and newest Jaycees Mr. and Mrs. Ken Clark.

After dinner the evening began with the installation of the new year's officers, who are: President Lee Silvey; Vice-Presidents, Mike Pawelak and Tom Von Glahn; Treasurer, Don Carollo; Secretary John VanStipdonk, Directors Julius Szabo, Richard Szente, Joe Veryser and Ray Wood.

Auxiliary President Mrs. Carole Mason; Vice-President, Mrs. Bonnie Bossidis; Treasurer - Mrs. Karen Carollo, secretaries Sharon Szente and Sandy Taylor; Director Mrs. Ursula Von Glahn.

After the installation, outgoing Presidents Gary E. Johnson and Mrs. Marlene Pawelak presented awards to the Jaycees and Auxiliary.

Auxiliary members noted for special work were: Outstanding Jaycette of 1971-72, Mrs. Rose Silvey, M.O.R.E., Carole Mason) Ways and Means, Bonnie Bossidis; year-long standing chairmen, Carol Johnson and Gloria Bienkowski. Most deserving Jaycee assistance, Mrs. Rose Silvey and Mrs. Carol Johnson and Exhausted Hen Award, Mrs. Gloria Bienkowski.

The Jaycee Awards were begun by a surprise presentation of a Senatorship award in Jaycee international to outgoing Jaycee Jay Dick in recognition of tremendous time and service over the past 10 years. The J.C.I. award is the highest possible recognition made, and it was only the second time the chapter had done so, the first recipient being Gordon Silvey for 15 years' service.

After the presentations of roses to the wives, yearly recognitions were then made to committee of the year: Don Carollo, John Domas, Bob Weekly, Garold Hoffer and Leonard Folmar for the 1971-72 Junior Miss Pageant; Chairman of the year - Lee Silvey for the March of Dimes Benefit Dance; Outstanding Spoke and Spark Plug, Tom Taylor and Mike Pawelak respectively; Presidential Citations: Mike Pawelak, Tom Von Glahn, Joe Bienkowski, John Van Stipdonk, Alex Bossidus, Don Carollo, Richard Szente, Tom Taylor, Ron Collins, Gordon Silvey and Lee Silvey. Key men awards for their Key participation also went to Mike Pawelak and Don Carollo.

Special presentations were: the highest annual award of Jaycee of the Year for the 1971-72 to Tom Von Glahn, Life and Honorary membership to Gordon Silvey, Jay Dick, Joe Bienkowski, Leland Baumdraher and Don Treder.

A new award begun this year for total Jaycee committment and ponsored by exhausting Jaycee, Gordon Silvey, went to outgoing President Gary Johnson. And not to be forgotten, the first lady, Mrs. Carol Johnson, was presented a ring by her husband for her support during his presidential year.

Time nearing for suit decision

The lawsuit seeks to halt the delivery of the bonds to the stadium authority, contending the sale of the bonds by the authority is public funding of a private business. Under the stadium proposal, the bonds are to be guaranteed by the full faith and credit of Wayne County.

The authority sold the bonds one month ago and has until June 19 to sign the bond certificates and receive delivery of the money needed to build the stadium.

If the money is not delivered by June 19, the stadium authority would have to request new bids on the tax-free municipal bonds with the possibility that the interest rate would be higher than the 6½ per cent it had obtained.

Smith and the two investment counselors contend in the lawsuit that revenues anticipated by the stadium authority would never meet the annual debt on the bonds, forcing Wayne County to levy a tax to pay off the bonds.

They charged the bonds would jeopardize the financial standing of Wayne County communities and they would find themselves facing higher interest rates on bonds they wanted to sell for their own purposes.

If the supreme court rules in favor of the authority, it is expected ground could be broken for the proposed stadium in July.

The lawsuit also has been responsible for holding up the sale of bonds for the proposed $40 million Pontiac football stadium. Officials of the Pontiac Stadium Authority report they cannot sell bonds until the cloud over the Wayne County bonds is cleared.

Both the Wayne County and Pontiac stadium authorities have received the approval of the Michigan Municipal Finance Commission.

when built will be sold on the private market at a price range of $23,000 to $35,000, Wilhelmi said.

The construction of the homes (eight plans and specifications for different type homes are planned) will be subject yo the approval of the City Council and HUD rules and regulations.

Recently the City Council approved construction contracts for improvements in the first phase.

Lottery venders must be screened closely

When Michigan voters broke sharply with the past and wiped out a 137-year ban on state lotteries they joined six other states hard-pressed to raise the funds to run their governments.

Even the most ardent advocates of this type of legalized gambling must have been amazed at the 3 to 1 margin by which voters approved the proposal.

New Hampshire, considered a staid rural-type state, raised a lot of eyebrows during the 1960s when — with little advance notice — it approved legalized gambling to raise funds to run its state government.

Five other states followed suit quickly, among them New Jersey and New York. The latter has been groping feverishly to find the funds needed to keep the commonwealth from bankruptcy. It has a horrendous relief and welfare problem. With more than one million on welfare just in greater New York.

The victory for Michigan's lottery finds assistants of Gov. William G. Milliken scurrying to get the lottery implemented by early fall. If the vending machinery can be expedited by fall it's their hope that at least $20 million can be added to the state coffers by year's end.

Unquestionably the state could use the $60 to $70 million which some estimate the lottery could take in for a full year.

The City of Detroit in the most dire financial straits in the three centuries it has existed, also is casting covetous eyes toward a city lottery. Mayor Roman Gribbs is striving to prevent a bankrupt city and the massive layoffs and restricted services which now appear imminent.

High unemployment, an expanding welfare load and the constant push for more and more school funds and appropriations for mental health have pushed repeated Michigan state budgets into imbalance.

This coupled with massive protests by taxpayers against additional levies have put the state into a financial bind from which it seems unable to extricate itself.

During 1971, the state personal income tax rate was raised by 50 per cent to 3.9, but even that transfusion was like nothing against the burgeoning demands from many sides.

No less than the clergy, we are cognizant that moral aspects prevail in gambling, legal or illegal. But unfortunately the urge to gamble, particularly by the poor hoping for a windfall, is something which is not going to be abolished by law.

If the legal state lottery will be a device which will drain off some of the millions which now go into the hands of criminal elements through the numbers game, illegal off-track betting on the horses and sports, it will serve a good purpose.

That does not mean we condone expanded gambling to the point where it will get out of all policeable bounds. The legislature must provide strict guidelines and screen well the type of men and women who will be licensed to the vending job.

In short the licensing should be sure to exclude the undesirable elements in our society who will try to get into the act.

I am a sick 'American'

There are those who claim ours is a "sick" society, that our country is sick; that we are sick.

Well, maybe they're right. I submit that I'm sick...and maybe you are, too.

I am sick of being told that religion is the opiate of the people, but marijuana should be legalized.

I am sick of commentators and columnists canonizing anarchists, revolutionaries and criminal rapists, but condemning law enforcement when such criminals are brought to justice.

I am sick of being told that pornography is the right of the free press, but freedom of the press does not include being able to read the Bible on school grounds.

I am sick of paying more and more taxes to build schools while I see some people in our society tear them down or burn them.

I am sick of Supreme Court decisions which turn criminals loose on society.

I am sick of pot-smoking entertainers deluging me with their condemnation of my moral standards on late night television.

I am sick of being told that policemen are mad dogs or pigs who should not have guns-but that criminals who use guns to rob, maim and murder should be understood and helped back to society.

I am sick of being told it is wrong to use napalm to end a war overseas, but if it's a Molotov cocktail or a bomb at home, I must understand the provocations.

I am sick of not being able to take my family to a movie unless I want them exposed to nudity, homosexuality or the glorification of narcotics.

I am sick of riots, marches, protests, demonstrations, confrontations, and the other mob temper tantrums of people intellectually incapable of working within the system.

I am sick of cynical attitudes toward patriotism.

I am sick of permissiveness.

I am sick of the dirty, the foulmouthed, the unwashed.

I am sick of the decline of personal honesty, personal integrity and human sincerity.

Most of all, though, I am sick of being told that I'm sick. I'm sick of being told my country is sick - when we have the greatest nation that man has ever brought forth on the face of the earth.

Fully 50 per cent of the people on earth would willingly trade places with the most deprived, the most underprivileged among us.

Yes, I may be sick, but if I am only sick, I can get well. I can also help my society get well-and help my country get well.

Take note, all of you ... you will not find me throwing a rock or a bomb; you will not find me under a placard; you will not see me take to the streets; you will not find me ranting to wild-eyed mobs.

But you will find me at work, paying taxes, serving in the community where I live.

You will also find me expressing myself to elected officials.

You will find me speaking out in support of those officials, institutions and personalities who contribute to the elevation of society and not its destruction.

You will find me contributing my time, money and personal influence to helping churches, hospitals, charities and other establishments which have shown the true spirit of this country's determination to ease the pain, suffering, eliminate hunger and generate brotherhood.

But, most of all, you'll find me at polling places.

There if you listen - you can hear the thunder of the common man.

There, all of us can cast our vote - for an America where people can walk the streets without fear.

Special amendment bans 'racial' busing

By JOHN E. McCAULEY State Senator 11th District

The most tangible step against forced busing was taken last Wednesday when the Michigan Senate adopted a special amendment to the school financing bill proposed by Senator John Bowman (D-Roseville) and me.

The amendment forbids the spending of any of the multi-million dollar school aid package for cross-district busing, or within the school district, if the purpose is to achieve some sort of so-called "racial balance."

Obviously, the proponents of the forced busing idea are unhappy about the success of this amendment. The pressure that was generated in favor of forced busing showed that they have well organized support for an idea that is soundly rejected by a majority of our citizens.

That a majority of the Senate rejected that pressure is a tribute to the responsiveness of the Senators to what the people want.

As a further warning to the ultra-liberal bloc, I voted against the aid package.

My "no" vote was not a vote against responsible education. It was a symbolic gesture designed to indicate to those who would spend about a billion and half dollars on kindergarten through the 12th grade to take a good hard look at themselves.

I am disturbed about the high cost of administration. Some of these superintendents and even principals make as much money as the governor of Michigan.

I think it is past time for unquestioned acceptance of what a bureaucratic school official says. I for one will continue to take the time to review the various programs one by one to see if they are necessary, are needed, and represent a reasonable use of the taxpayer's money.

Home needs vacation preparation

By DANN BARKUME

Summer unofficially gets under way with the long Memorial Day weekend and vacationists will flock to recreation areas in Michigan and around the country.

For most, it's a time of relaxation and enjoyment of some favorite pastimes. For the local burglar, it means a haven for practicing his trade. Burglars "clean-up" on homes of vacationing residents.

There are several tips and practices that can greatly reduce — or eliminate — the chance of being burglarized while on vacation.

Have a neighbor keep a close watch on your home while you're gone. Notify your local police department that you will be out of town. Most community police departments, if notified, will keep a special watch on homes where residents are on vacation.

Stop all deliveries and accumulation of mail. Burglars keep a close eye out for the cluttered porch and mail box, its a sure sign that someone is far away and his chances of being caught are slim.

Lock all windows and brace them so that it is impossible to force them open. A sturdy piece of wood usually does the trick.

Automatic timers hooked up to several lamps in the house provide a means for lighting in the evening hours. The lights can be set to turn on at dusk and turn off again at a normal retiring hour.

Leave a light on in one area of the house not visible from the outside, such as the bathroom.

If your vacation is gong to be a lengthy one, make arrangements to have your lawn mowed regularly.

Summer is a time of relaxation and family fun. A few easy precautions could save a lot of trouble when going on vacation. The house burglar is responsible for millions of dollars worth of stolen goods each year. By taking precautions, you can make his job a lot harder, and maybe even impossible.

Washington beat

Hart, Griffin promise to fight Ford problem

By TOM OCHILTREE, Daily Eagle Washington Bureau chief

Michigan's two senators — Philip A. Hart and Robert P. Griffin — have served notice they are prepared to fight to the last ditch for an exemption in the antipollution law to enable the Ford Motor Company to avoid a lengthy shutdown this summer.

Both said they were determined that 173,000 Ford jobs would not be placed in jeopardy because of what the two senators regard as a technical and unintentional violation of Environmental Protection Agency (EPA) regulations.

Hart, a Democrat, and Griffin, a Republican, felt if Ford production workers were laid off for from two to four months the impact on the Michigan economy would be disastrous.

In addition to the workers directly involved, such a shutdown would have a ripple effect spreading to Ford suppliers and outward from there to other parts of the state's economy. This would deplete unemployment compensation funds and cause any number of other social and governmental problems.

While Griffin and Hart were making their positions known, officials of Ford and the EPA explored an administrative solution to the problem.

Such a solution would satisfy the two Michigan senators so long as it was capable of standing up to a possible court challenge and served to keep the Ford production lines moving.

As a fall back position, Griffin and Hart were willing to push for a special act of Congress to grant Ford a one-time exemption. This would take a lot of effort on their part this late in the session.

In talking with reporters Wednesday, Senate Majority Leader Mike Mansfield, (D-Montana) expressed doubts that Ford would get off the federal hook. He said: "The law is the law and I expect it to be enforced."

Current federal law provides that no automobile can be shipped or sold until it has passed antipollution standards administered by EPA.

Ford's problems arose when engineers conducting 50,000-mile tests on engines for 1973 models engaged in maintenance on the prototype automobiles unaware that this was a violation of EPA regulations.

Ford's top management informed the EPA. William D. Ruckelshaus, administrator of EPA, then told a Senate subcommittee the tests were invalid.

He raised the possibility that new tests which could take as long as four months, would have to be conducted. This in turn would force a production shut down at a time when Ford was scheduled to begin rolling out its new models in July.

"This senator is not going to allow more than 100,000 workers who are his constituents to be thrown out of work for four months," Hart said.

In a similar vein, Griffin said: "I think it is ridiculous and unthinkable to suggest that 173,000 Ford Motor Company jobs could be placed in jeopardy because of what essentially is a bureaucratic technicality.

"I understand that Ford's engine does meet the emission standards. Surely EPA can adjust or speed up the testing procedure so Ford can qualify in time for new model production.

Band parent upset with powers-that-be

To the editor:

This past week has brought about some reflections about young people, education, those who lead the young people, public events, etc.

The Van Buren powers-that-be, educational, political, etc, have insisted upon the Belleville High School Band performing at various local and not so local events in the past year when at times it was inconvenient, unwise and impractical because of weather, prior committments, upcoming public concerts and other school affairs.

Have any of you even marched on icy streets or under a blazing sun?

But this last Sunday was the climax when as I viewed the Memorial Day parade in Belleville. Whom did I see? Did I see those persons who demand the appearance of this group?

No, not them. It was Sunday and there were better things to do.

Along the parade route were parents, who having had to drop their particular activity of the day to bring a son or daughter to march in the band, Boy Scout or Girl Scout groups, might as well stay to watch the affair as they would only have to pick them up at the conclusion of the event.

This band has worked very consistently and diligently to serve and be a good example of civic pride to this community. It is discouraging to participate continually in these events without any sign of the ones who insist on these extra performances. It is said by the experts who advise up parents on child raising that the child learns a great deal by precept and example. What do these young people learn from this particular experience?

No wonder there is a generation gap!

Since last September, this band has marched in New Boston, at the halftime shows of the football games, the Christmas parade and the Memorial Day parade plus giving many fine concerts, with one last one to come. (Picnic pops, June 3, 1-6 p.m. at the football field) only to find that their one request for buses to spend a day of relaxation at Cedar Point was denied.

This was done in spite of the fact that they had earned the money themselves for the day, including the transportation costs. On the other hand, who gives the permission for the Little League to use the buses to go to the ball game in July, purely non-educational also. It's no wonder that at times the young people distrust their elders, rebel, demonstrate, etc.

How many of these powers-that-be have attended any of the concerts of any of the bands — elementary, junior high and high school — this year? There is a noticeable lack of those faces in amongst the interested parents.

What about love?

What about love now? Do we have to shut it out now?
People aren't made to be hated or criticized,
Let's try to make a better place, by
Listening and caring, nothing's worth more than your sharing.
Brighten the wonders of the day with giving,
But don't bother with the question why.
Look to the heavens, for you may find a better answer,
Our land and people from every nation has to have love like me and you.
Climb every mountain, walk through the hills of sorrow,
Then you'll know what it could be like tomorrow.
Don't cheat on your friends, for you may need them in the end.
Watch what could happen now, things won't stay the same forever.
You've got to make that desperate change and hurry, for there isn't much time.
What about love now? Marching through the times of confusion,
No one wants to be possessed with delusion,
Yet people often wonder why!
Listening and caring, nothing's worth more than your sharing.
Brighten the wonders of the day with giving,
But don't bother with the question why.

Though there was plenty of smoke generated at the fifth running of the All-Area Track & Field Meet last week, it couldn't compare with the funnel of black smoke which appeared from a nearby apartment complex which was destroyed by fire during the meet held at Wayne Memorial.

No one was reported injured from the fire at the apartments.

There were plenty of surprises at the meet which is co-sponsored by the Daily Eagle and the Associated Newspapers.

Lorenzo Reid, one of the best hurdlers ever produced at Inkster High School, captured both the 120-yard high hurdles and the 180-yard low hurdles to become the only athlete to win two gold medals and named to two All-Area berths.

Others who captured first places are Daryl Gooden (Romulus), Jim Honke (Churchill), Lukie Ealey (Robichaud), Wes Teeple (John Glenn), Dennis Kurtis (Churchill), Andre Jacobs (Robichaud), James Dillard (Robichaud), Dave Smith (Wayne Memorial), Joe Keister (Wayne Memorial), and Bob Berry (John Glenn).

Robichaud won the 880-yard relay with James Dillard, Ed McDaniels, Wesley Jones, Andre Jacobs, and the Bulldogs were the top performers in the mile relay with Gary Clark, Warren Woods, McDaniels and Dillard.

Livonia Franklin's 440-yard relay team placed first with Mike Filarecki, Mike McKindles, Mark Newman and Ken Yuhasz.

Reid, who recently finished second in the state in the high hurdles (14.4), pushed the gas pedal to the ground in his specialty when he reached the midway point and sped away from Sam Still of Wayne Memorial to finish one tenth off his best time ever, 14.3.

Still, was runnerup with a 15.15 and beat Franklin's Bob Lee (15:25) across the finish line.

Later, in a "photo finish," Reid managed to use an extra spurt at the finish line to nose out Franklin's Mark Newman for the gold in the low hurdles. Both were given the identical times of 19.7.

Still was a step behind (19.8) and settled for third.

Regional champ (15.4) and Mid-Wayne champ (14.7) in the highs, Lorenzo is considered "to have unlimited potential".

"He's great," said Inkster Coach Richard Walker," the potential this boy has is just unlimited."

Jacobs, a junior, pulled away from Wayne's Joe Keister and Livonia Franklin's Ken Yuhasz to win the 100-yard dash. His winning time was 10.1. Keister battled the Robichaud junior three-quarters of the way, then slipped to third place (10.15) as the judges gave Yuhasz the nod for second (10.15).

However, Jacobs suffered a pulled hamstring muscle and there was no rematch between these three splendid athletes in the 220. Keister held off Yuhasz, winning in 22.5, with one-tenth of a second to spare. Yuhasz was second (22.6) and Myron Thomas of Inkster finished third (23.0).

Jacobs, a junior, captured the Mid-Wayne Conference titles in both dashes, while Keister, hampered most of the season with pulled hamstring, recovered during the latter part of the campaign to become one of the most effective all-round athletes on Bill Hawley's team.

Keister finished sixth in the state in the quarter-mile and was regional and Mid-Wayne champ in the event. He placed second in the league and regional for the 220-yard dash.

When he took on Jacobs in the 100, it was his first venture at the shorter distance.

"He's blessed with natural ability, intelligence to put it to work and the dedication to blend the two," said Hawley. "We'll miss him next year."

There were other surprises, of course.

Livonia Churchill's Dennis Kurtis proved to the field you take nothing for granted. Kurtis, groomed as a two-miler most of the year, was entered in the mile run to challenge John Glenn's top-notch distance runner, Jim Lockwood.

Lockwood set the pace for all except the final 100 yard when the Livonia broke loose in the stretch and sped to the finish line first. Kurtis was clocked in 4:23.7. Lockwood walked off with a second place medal, finishing in a 4:24.4.

Lockwood finished seventh in the state for the 2 mile.

Kurtis was recently voted the most valuable athlete on the Churchill team, a honor he also held in the Western Six Conference. He was league champ in the 880 (1:59.9), and second in the regional for the two-mile (9:38.7) and seventh in the state for the two-mile (9:32.6).

Franklin's John Dawe, who finished eighth for the mile in the state, eyed the 2-mile gold medal and found Wayne Memorial's Dave Smith eagerly awaiting the challenge.

Smith turned it into a one man race as he led the field "wire-to-wire", winning in 9:38.6. Daze beat Garden City East's John Yurchis to the finish line by one-tenth of a second (9:55.1).

Smith, a junior, has been clocked in the event at 9:23.4 this season. He finished second in the regional, tenth in the state and first in the Mid-Wayne.

"He's the most dedicated trackman we have," said Hawley.

Dillard came on with a superlative performance in the 440-yard dash. He covered the distance in a 49.3, beating Franklin's Joe Jinnettt (49.8) and Steve Taylor of Wayne (51.2) to the wire.

Dillard, also a senior, was second to Keister in the league.

Glenn produced a couple of gold medalists in Berry and Teeple. Berry captured the half-mile event in a 2:01.3, which was slightly off his best time for the year (2:00.2). He also climaxed three varsity years by winning the Northwest Suburban Conference title in the event.

Pole vaulter Teeple is a sophomore who cleared 13 feet to earn his spot on the honorary team. The young athlete nicked the bar in a couple of his attempts at 13 feet, 7 inches.

"For a soph who has gone 13 feet you have to be darn good," said Glenn's Barry Basel.

Ealey has now made the grade as an All-Area candidate in two sports. The 17-year-old junior was selected as a cager. Yesterday he came up with a 21 feet, ¼ inch leap in the long jump to top the field.

Ealey was the league champ and placed fourth at the regional in the event.

Churchill's Honke came up with his best high jumping effort ever and cleared 6 feet, 4 inches to win his gold medal. His nearest challenger was Joe Cichon (Cherry Hill) who led two others, Ealey and Guy Burke (Franklin) in the final standings. Cichon dropped out at six-foot.

Track fans also follow fire trucks

By TOM MOORADIAN
Sports Editor

There is nothing comical about a fire.

But last week as I stood in the Wayne Memorial press box covering the Fifth Annual All-Area Track Meet and saw that ominous funnel of black smoke bellow from the nearby apartment complex, I almost chuckled.

Early that morning I implored J.P. McCarthy, the WJR disc jockey, to play "Don't rain on my parade" and what happens - it blazes instead.

Scores of fans, naturally, hustled over to the corner of Venoy and Glenwood to watch the firefighters battle the flames.

Not only did we lose the fans for awhile, but staff photographer Dean Lyons announced, "I got to go, hold the winners for me until I get back."

Now how does an old man like me hold on to some of the best trackmen in the state, can you answer that?

Anyway, the meet, which is sponsored by this newspaper, did go off smoothly and we would like to thank Wayne Coach Bill Hawley, who gave us his valuable time — that could have been spent with his team - for conducting the meet. John Glenn's assistant track coach Jerry Szukaitis, whose organizational acuity is surpassed by only a few, also deserves a note of gratitude.

Many of the participating coaches provided a helping hand - and to all of you we say, "Thank you."

If we were to award a medal "for desire to compete" it definitely would have to go to Bob Faust, John Glenn's two-miler. Faust broke his arm in a gym class recently and he refused to by-pass this meet.

With his arm in a cast the young athlete competed in the two-mile run and, if you ever wore a cast you'd know how uncomfortable it can be. Try wearing one and run two miles.

Faust completed the race, and here's one sports editor who wished he had finished first.

Lynn Ketlehut, the former Lutheran West track star who competed as a resident of Garden City a few years ago, suggested that we have "an invitational mile," added to the All-Area meet. Former participants could come back and compete.

It's not a bad idea, folks.

But how many of the former athletes keep in shape once leaving the high school sports scene? You don't have to answer that, Lynn.

I have it from "reliable sources" that Robichaud and Inkster have joined a new league. The league will be operational after the 1972-73 school year.

I also have it from "most reliable sources" that the "above reliable source" isn't reliable.

"No," says Bernie Ingle, Robichaud athletic director, "we haven't joined a new conference.

"No," says Kam White, Inkster High athletic director, "we haven't joined a new conference.

Doesn't two negatives make a positive?

It seems that Robichaud, Inkster, Rouge, Allen Park, and Ecorse will band together in the new alignment.

For some reason I have a feeling that the league will become a reality.

It's better than playing an independent schedule. Ask Romulus, Kam, they'll tell you.

Belleville Mack loop tryouts set

Not one, but two Connie Mack baseball teams. That's the goal of the Belleville-Van Buren area.

Tryouts for the team will be staged on Saturday at Belleville High School diamond beginning at 10 a.m. and all boys who are between the ages of 16 and 18 years old are welcomed to compete.

The season will begin on June 10.

The managers for this year's team are Ken LaCross and Jerry Cole, William Cummings and Mel White. Further information about registration and the tryouts may be obtained from league president Don Vance at 697-0648.

The Connie Mackers will be playing in a 9-team league this season.

ANN ARBOR - Bo Schembechler's football coaching record at Michigan is .848 (28-5), the highest percentage of any Wolverine football coach since 1900.

Holmes repeats as coach of year

It's rare indeed that an area coach is named as the top mentor for two years in succession.

But Livonia Franklin's Bob Holmes had a rare season this year. Holmes' Patriots won their first regional championship, finished fourth in the final Class A state tabulation, after sweeping up all the marbles in the Northwest Suburban Conference, and winning the Western Wayne Relays.

And for his outstanding efforts, The Daily Eagle and The Associated Newspapers are honored to name him as our Coach of the Year.

"We had some boys who knew what our goals were and they worked diligently to realize them. Now, I guess we will have to start all over again," Holmes said.

It was the second time in the 13 year history of the Livonia high school that the track team had posted a perfect season.

Melvindale shuts out Belleville in tourney

Melvindale waited until the last of the seventh to break a scoreless deadlock and oust Belleville from the Wyandotte Tournament 1-0 last week.

Steve Theodore, who gathered goose eggs for six innings only to give up a couple of singles in the last frame, was the loser. He was relieved in the seventh by Vern Gowen who successfully tried to squelch the Melvindale rally.

Larry Farr hammered two of the Belleville four hits off of winning pitcher Mike Henderson.

Huron '9' closes out season with triumph over Jefferson

Huron High's baseball team wound up on the negative side of .500 this season, but there was still a great feeling of accomplishment for Coach Ron Smith and his Chiefs.

In losing two of its three games during the final week of the campaign the chiefs finished with a Huron Conference record of 7-9 and an over-all mark of 11-13. The young Chiefs showed promise however, and Smith feels that he has the nucleus of a future winner.

"Right from the start we expected this to be a rebuilding year," said Smith as he looked back on the just-concluded season. "We had lost a lot of men from last year and we only had four seniors on the team.

"But our players worked hard and showed improvement and as the season wore on we became a pretty good ball club. Although our hitting was spotty we had good pitching and defense and I have to say that I am satisfied with the season."

Smith, who has been Huron's baseball coach for eight seasons, went on to term the 1972 team's attitude as "the best of any team that I've coached here."

His club's attitude was tested last Monday and Tuesday when it suffered back-to-back shutouts at the hands of Blissfield, 5-0, and Flat Rock, 12-0. Following the two defeats the Chiefs came back to close out their season with a 9-3 triumph over Monroe Jefferson on Wednesday.

Blissfield and Flat Rock limited the Chiefs to a total of five hits. Dana Kemp had both hits in the game against Blissfield while Kemp, Mario Gracia, and Art Sarkkinen each had one safety in the Flat Rock game.

Sophomore lefthander Ken DeLano hurled the route against Blissfield while three Huron pitchers absorbed the punishment inflicted by Flat Rock.

Smith called the Flat Rock contest "a disappointment."

"They reached us for 12 runs and 12 hits," he said. "But, it was only the second time in 24 games that our pitching really let us down."

Huron rediscovered its pitching and hitting touches as it ended the season by downing Jefferson.

Junior southpaw Jamie Hinjosa struck out a career high of 15 as he led the Chiefs to their win.

Hinjosa, who at one point recorded 13 outs in a row by strikeouts, gave up all three runs in the sixth inning when Jefferson rallied with the aid of several bloop singles. Kemp led the way at the plate with a 3-for-e performance and two RBI's.

The Chiefs, who held a 4-0 lead through five innings, more than made up for Jefferson's comeback attempt when they put the game away with five runs in the bottom of the sixth.

Gracia started the rally with a walk. Singles by Larry Smith and Sarkkinen produced one run and Chuck Pearson brought in two more with a double.

Kemp singled in the fourth run of the inning. He later advanced to third and then capped the inning with a steal of home.

Kemp, a junior catcher, led Huron in batting with an average just short of the .400 mark and placed second in RBI's.

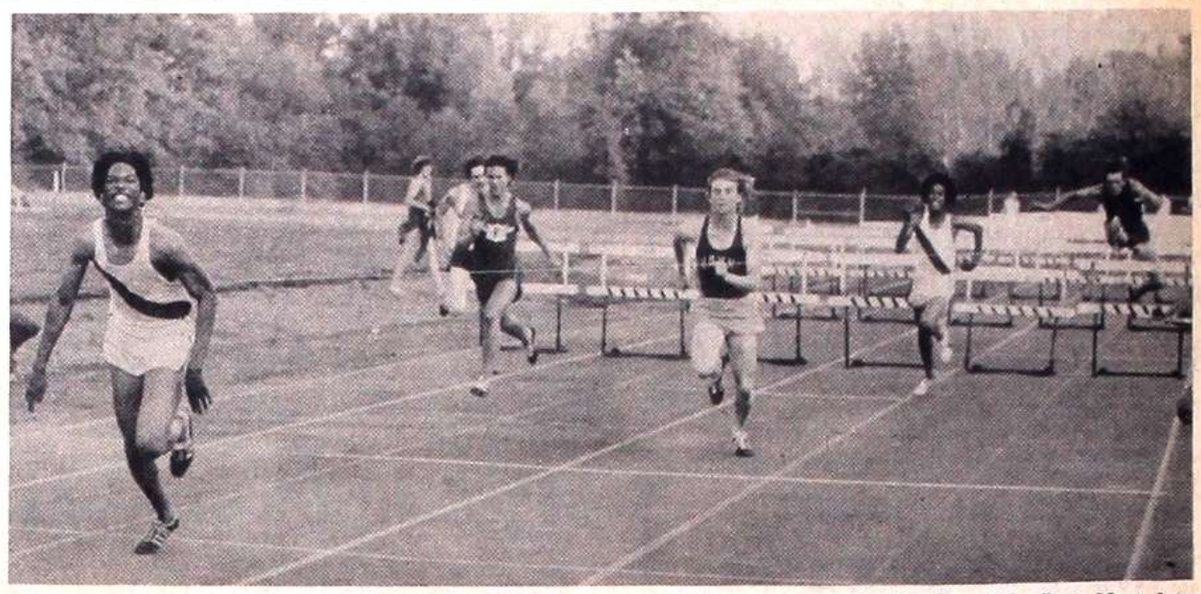
Smith feels that his receiver should be a stickout again next season along with pitchers Jamie Hinjosa, Delano, and Gary Whitehouse and soph outfielder Tim Hinjosa.

Ron Thompson, a pitcher-first baseman who was the team's RBI leader, and Smith will be the two seniors whom Smith will have the hardest time replacing.

The Huron mentor saw signs of promise in a performance which Ken DeLano turned in during a reserve game against Jefferson.

In moving down to pitch for the reserves DeLano fired a two-hitter and chalked up 16 strikeouts.

If he can pitch at anything approaching that pace for next season's varsity there may be a pleasant 1973 in store for Huron on the baseball diamond.



DOUBLE WINNER — Inkster High's Lorenzo Reid flashes to victory in the 120-high hurdles at last Wednesday's fifth annual All-Area track meet at Wayne Memorial. Reid, who finished second in the high hurdles at the State Meet, later went on to capture first place in the All-Area low hurdles race.

Gooden victor in shot

Romulus Coach Jess Meriweather brought only one athlete to the meet, and he proved to be the best in the field of shot-putters. Daryl Gooden also emerged with his best effort with a put of 51 feet, 4½ inches. West's Gary Snyder tossed 50 feet, 0¼ inches for second.

Ingle put together a foursome of Dillard, McDaniels, Jones and Jacobs for the 880-yard relay and the Dearborn Heights runners convinced their rivals without any difficulty that they were the best.

The foursome combined for a 1:29.6, turning back second place finisher, Livonia Franklin (1:30.6) and Garden City West, which was third (1:30.6).

In the mile run, Robichaud's Clark, Woods, McDaniels and Dillard ran a 3:23.9 to lead Churchill and Franklin across the finish line. Churchill was clocked in 3:25.4.

Franklin wrapped up the newest event, the 440-yard relay, as Filarecki, McKindles, Newman and Yuhasz presented a Robichaud sweep of the relays with a 4:40 finish. Robichaud earned second place on the basis of a 44.2 performance.

Four slo-pitch teams unbeaten

Four teams remain undefeated as the second week of competition ended in the Romulus Adult slo-pitch softball league.

Coughlin Air and Romulus Progressive Club in the East, and Carpentry By Woodcraft and Spearman's Fine Foods in the West have perfect records in their respective loops.

Bill Worden led Coughlin's 15-hit attack against Kerr with 3 hits in 4 trips including a home run. Leon James also homered for Coughlin. Chuck Hazen held Kerr to one run on four hits in gaining his second win of the season. Coughlin overpowered their rivals, 15-1.

Ed Labato was Coughlin's hitting star in Thursday's 12 to 6 win over Walter's Bar. Labato collected three hits in three tries in Coughlin's 16 hit total. Ralph Rakotz was touched for 13 hits in gaining the win.

Romulus Progressive Club scored five times in the bottom of the 4th inning to overhaul Baum's Funeral Home. Baum's had moved to a 4 to 2 lead in the top of the frame on Ted Marken's single and Mike Haush's circuit clout.

Ken Mientkiewicz, Ron Dick and Fred Eberline opened Progressive's half with singles. Ron Dick was thrown out at home trying to score on Bob Maronen's single then Bob Harmer, Jim Halcomb and John Sterling capped the rally with doubles.

Progressive added three runs in the sixth and 4 singles and three errors. The final count was Progressive 10 Baum's 5.

Progressive extended its streak to four with a 10 to 4 win over Morgan Manor. Hugh Miller with 4-for-4 and Fred Eberline with 3-for-4 led Progressive's 18 hit assault. Jim Halcomb and John Sterling opened the game with walks and Ken Mientkiewicz singled, then Harmond Schonfeld tripled and came home on a throwing error and Progressive had four quick runs.

Bob Zygai held Morgan to 7 hits in registering his second win of the season.

Londie Parker was 3-for-4 in Spearman's 14 to 8 win over Romulus Welding Tuesday, on Thursday Darwin Wessels and Bill Howell were 3 for 4 and Rich Spearman slammed a 3-run homer and a double in Spearman's 8 to 3 win over Cue Corners.

Rich Kokila recorded his third and fourth wins of the season in these games.

Baum's Funeral Home collected 23 hits to down Romulus Press Repair 15 to 6 Thursday. Baum's scored 9 times in the sixth when Jerry Mixter was safe on an error, Mike Haush doubled, Joe Laduke singled and Mike Pratt homered, Glen McCory singled. Mcled in front of doubles by Alex McCraight and John Walker. Then Bud Sheppard and Ted Marken singled-Marken scored on an error for the 9th run of the inning.

Romulus set for finale

One more game to go and first year coach Bill Cuhran and the Romulus ball club can start stacking away the equipment.

Romulus will play former Twin Valley Conference rival, Willow Run's Flyers today in the curtain-drawer for both teams and the Eagles will try to end the season with a two-game winning streak.

Romulus exploded for four runs in the fifth inning to lift it to a 5-2 victory over Lincoln Park in its last outing. Kurt Lenderman, who went the distance and fanned six, was the winning pitcher. He gave up six hits.

Romulus, which collected nine hits - two by Kenn McMann, rallied from a 2-0 deficit to put one run on the scoreboard in the bottom of the fourth. Virgil Smith started things off when he was safe on an error. He stole second and scored on Roy Hollis' single.

In the fifth the Eagles turned the tide when Brad Smith walked. Then Mike Hunter doubled and with men on third and second Bob Eves laid down a suicide squeeze for one run. A passed ball scored the second run and Hollis' single chased home the final two runs of the game.

Romulus blew a 3-1 first inning edge and lost an 8-5 decision to Dearborn Heights Robichaud earlier in the week. Mark Groves started and went 3-1/3 innings before Steve Pollard relieved him. After 1 1/3 innings, Pollard gave way to Sam Ruffolo. Groves was the losing pitcher.

Melee mars Belleville, AA Pioneer pre-district

A seventh inning melee between Belleville and Ann Arbor Pioneer players marred the pre-district tournament held Saturday at Pioneer High. Pioneer rallied for six runs in the bottom of the sixth to eliminate Belleville 6-4.

The two benches emptied when Belleville's Jim McCoy slid home with the Tigers' seventh inning run. The Pioneer catcher smacked McCoy on the back and the melee began.

Belleville Coach Vitold Kaminskis said he would inform the Michigan High School Athletic Association about the incident through a letter to that department. The MHSAA governs high school sports in the state.

Belleville took a 1-0 lead in the second when Mike Kottke hammered a homer, then made it 3-0 in the next frame on a walk to Steve Theodore and, after two were out, Tim Vance and Mike Dansard each stroked singles. A wild pitch scored the second run in the inning.

However, a pair of homers led to a six-run Pioneer sixth inning outburst that eventually gave the host the pre-district victory.

Belleville made a bid for a comeback in the last frame when Doug Raymond came through with a pinch-hit single. McCoy then took over as a pinch runner and moved to second as Mike Wilkinsen walked and, after an error, McCoy scored on a fielder's choice, touching off the melee.

On Friday, Belleville scrambled the Suburban 8 Conference title race when Vern Gowen tossed a one-hitter to pitch the Tigers to a 6-0 shutout victory over Dearborn Edsel Ford.

The Belleville triumph a three-way tie for first. Edsel Ford, Redford Union and the Tigers each have a share of first going into the final week of action. The trio is 8-4 on the league year.

Belleville had to get by Allen Park last night and will meet Redford Union on Thursday in the stretch.

Gowen, whose league record now stands at 5-3, gave up a single to Jim Cameron in the first inning then went on to gather goose eggs the rest of the way.

He helped his own cause with a pair of hits, a single and double in three trips to the plate. Also with two for threes were Mike Dansard and Kevin Bara. Bara doubled and homered. Larry Farr stroked a double and single in four appearances.

Belleville went ahead 1-0 in the first inning when, with two away, Dansard singled and quickly moved to second on the outfielder's error. Gowen then chased him home with his first hit.

The Tigers exploded for four runs in the bottom of the fifth as Bara led off with a homer — his second of the season. Then Farr and Tim Vance each doubled. Gowen connected for a two-base hit to score two more runs.

In the sixth Bara doubled, Mike Wilkinsen was hit by a wild pitch and Farr singled to load the bases.

Bara scored on a wild pitch.

"It was our best hitting game of the season," said Kaminskis whose Tigers pounded a pair of Edsel pitchers for 11 hits.

Fant runs 3rd in 880 at MAC championships

KALAMAZOO, Mich., — Belleville sophomore Mike Fant came thru with a fine 1:51.4 clocking in the 880-yard run to capture a third place for Western Michigan's track team at the Mid-American Conference championships last Saturday in Toledo.

Fant cut seven-tenths of a second off his best 1972 performance as NCAA Indoor champ Dave Wottle of Bowling Green won the race and defending MAC titlist Ted Harris, Kent State, finished second.

Fant also ran the third leg with WMU's mile relay team which finished with a time of 3:15.4, a marked improvement over a previous best effort of 3:19.5.

The Broncos were narrowly edged, 138-132, by Bowling Green for team honors. WMU has finished either first or second in 23 of the 25 MAC championships since this competition was begun in 1948.

PTO president lauds success of carnival

To the editor:

Once again our school calendar rolled around to carnival time at Elwell School. Although we do not know as yet exactly how much profit from the event will be realized, we do know that once again it was a smashing success.

Of course, an event of this magnitude requires much initial planning and hard work. Our carnival co-chairmen, Mrs. Shaaon Justin and Mrs. Jenny Prohaska, performed duties and services far beyond their responsibilities. To these people, I would like to give a special thanks.

Then there were all the people who came forward looking for work to do. The game chairmen and their helpers, the kitchen help, the ticket sellers, Mrs. Raines and her Girl Scouts and the teachers who pitched in and helped out. Without these very special people, it would all have been impossible. I would like to thank them all.

Without the assistance and cooperation of our principal, Mr. Chizmar, and his very able secretary, Mrs. Clift, we would have been in trouble many times. Their efforts in coordinating this event were invaluable.

Finally there were all the parents and students who came, all those people who made the carnival a success. They have proved again that they are interested in our school, its programs and especially our children.

I am sure I speak for the entire PTO when I give a very special thanks to you all.

Poem on Vietnam

"NAM"

How many of you have raised a son,
Watched, as he marched away to war.
Knowing full well when he left your sight,
He would be gone for a year or more.

How many times have you gazed at the wall,
Checked the month, the date, and the week,
And felt so glad bou't the time gone by,
But, the remaining time, made you feel weak.

How many times the anguish,
As you wait for the mail to come.
Or a strange car, with a military man,
To say that a life was done.

How many of you have known the joy,
When the time is almost in.
With all the real dangers over,
Now your sure your son will win.

How many of you have recieved the news,
Dear folks, only ten days to go.
When you thank your stars, and the Lord above,
For you know the news is true.

Your happy, elated, and filled with joy,
But, at the same time filled with woe.
For, to thousands of other Moms and Dads,
This ending, has not been so.

WANT A PUPPY? — Van Buren Township Dog Warden Bill Minyard has six mixed-breed puppies, several weeks old, that are looking for new homes. The previous owner of the puppies reported she was unable to keep them. Anyone interested in providing a home for the cute puppies are asked to call the township hall at 941-0434 and ask for the dog warden.

Pancake festival success

The recent pancake festival sponsored by the Romulus Kiwanis Club was reported a huge success by club officials. More than 600 pancake dinners were served.

The proceeds of this year's event exceeded last year's total of more than $600, co-chairman Joseph Nehra and John B. Lewkowicz reported Monday.

The pancake festival was held at the Romulus Progressive Hall, located at 11580 Ozga Rd., Romulus.

Eugene Wilson, president of the Romulus Kiwanis Club, issued thanks to all members who assisted in making the annual pancake festival a success and to those who attended the affair.

Airport grant ok'd

The Federal Aviation Administration has approved a $7,900,000 grant for the Detroit Metropolitan Airport, based in the City of Romulus, U. S. Congressman William F. Ford has announced.

Ford's announcement stated the funds approved are to be used to finance the development of new runways and approaches, building removal and safety fencing.

Mitchell Zolik deputy managing director of the Wayne County Road Commission, operator of the airport, stated the money would be used to acquire 1,665 acres of land for the ultimate expansion of the airport.

The funds will be allocated under the federal government's Airport Development Aid Program and will be matched by nearly $8 million in airport revenue bonds to be sold by the county, Zolik reported.

Park millage vote OK'd by governor

LANSING — A bill authorizing a millage vote for the Huron-Clinton Metropolitan Authority in southeast Michigan has been signed into law by Gov. William Milliken.

The measure, approved Friday, permits a vote of the people within the authority district on the question of raising property taxes from the current one-quarter mill to one-half mill.

"The new law gives the people of southeast Michigan an opportunity to improve, if they decide, what already is a nationally - recognized recreational system now serving our state's most populous area," the governor said.

Budget hearing planned

The City Council of Belleville has scheduled a public hearing at 8 p.m. June 5 on the city's proposed general operating budget for the 1972-73 fiscal year.

The hearing will be held in the city council chambers, located at 6 Main St., Belleville.

The proposed budget calls for an increase of one mill to the city's current tax rate of 13 mills ($13) per $1,000 of assessed property valuation before state equalization.

Kennel licenses renewed

Three kennel licenses have been renewed by the Van Buren Township Board.

The requests were made by Paul Pokrywki of 40586 Tyler Rd., Andy M. Turner of 49436 Martz Rd., and Mrs. Marilyn Woestman of 6817 Sheldon Rd.

Township Dog Warden Bill Minyard reported the kennels were in compliance with the township's dog ordinance and he recommended the license renewals be approved.

GLASS COLLECTION CENTER — Youth groups from Belleville area churches united their efforts in a clean-up program for the observance of Michigan Week (May 20 - 27). A barrel painting project for the area's glass collection center is displayed in front of the Girls' Place on Main Street in Belleville. Michigan Week officials lauded the youth groups for their city clean-up efforts and for their glass recycling program.

The choir's presentation was under the direction of Keith Drayton. One of the highlights of the musical program was the singing of "The Battle Hymn of the Republic."

Who owns hog?

Romulus Pound Master George Hargrove is seeking the owner of a 400-pound hog.

The female hog was corralled on Huron River Drive opposite the Kelsey-Hayes Co. in Romulus Monday afternoon.

The Wayne County Sheriff's Road Patrol Division contacted the pound master when residents called them about a hog running at large in the area of Huron River Drive and Price Street.

Anyone who may be looking for the animal is asked to call Hargrove at 941-2177.

NMU degrees to be awarded

Two Romulus residents will receive degrees from Northern Michigan University on June 4 when commencement exercises will be held for the largest graduating class in the university's history.

The two students are Robert Conroy, who will receive a B.S. in secondary education, and Alan Satterlee, who also will receive a similar degree.

Members of the graduating class represent students from 13 states and one foreign country.

Romulus JC's steal one at Jackson

The Romulus Jaycees went behind prison bars to play a softball game last Wednesday.

Members of the Romulus Jaycee chapter journeyed to Jackson to play a team composed of members of the Southern Michigan Prison Jaycee chapter.

Romulus registered a 30-8 victory over the inmate squad. Regulation rules were in effect, with one notable exception - no "stealing" of bases was allowed.

The game was played as one facet of the exchange programs which many Jaycee chapters are carrying out with newly-formed chapters in correctional facilities.

The Romulus Jaycees will return to Jackson again next month to play another game with the Southern Michigan Prison Jaycee team.

Convention trip approved

The Romulus Senior Citizens are sending two delegates to the Senior Citizens National Convention in Washington, D.C. from June 8 - 10.

An expenditure up to $300 was approved by the Romulus City Council, which had been requested by the Romulus Senior Citizens Club.

Mrs. Ethel LaMar, secretary and Mrs. Bertha Leonard, club reporter, were selected as the club's delegates.

For busing measure

Ford urges support

WASHINGTON — Congressman William D. Ford (D-15th Dist.) has launched a campaign to seek public support for legislation to delay any court-ordered school busing to achieve racial balance until the U.S. Supreme Court has an opportunity to rule on the issue.

In letters sent recently to school officials and leaders of anti-busing groups, Ford urged them to write to their senators and to President Nixon to express support for proposed amendments to the Higher Education Act.

The amendments, approved last week by a joint House-Senate Conference, include the Broomfield Amendment which was co-sponsored by Ford.

"This amendment, if passed into law, will provide a constitutional, statutory protection against the implementation of cross-district busing plans until such time as the Supreme Court issues a ruling," Ford siad in the letter.

"It is expected that this conference report will be brought to the floor of the House and Senate for a vote within the next few days. Therefore, I would like to take this opportunity to urge that you write to your senators to request their support for the conference report, and to the President to urge him to sign this bill into law when it is brought before him."

The Broomfield amendment provided simply for delay of court-ordered busing pending review by the Supreme Court. This language was amended by the Senate to make the delay effective through Jan. 1, 1974.

CONTEST JUDGES — Patriotic essay contest entries submitted by seventh and eighth gradersat North Junior High School in Belleville are being reviewed by a panel of judges. The contest, sponsored by the John M. Wahl Chapter of the women's Relief Corps, was held at the school last week. The judges are (from left) Nina Bodenmiller, president of the John M. Wahl Chapter; Hazel Miller, chaplain of the corps; Darley Foster, past state department president of the WRC; and Olive James, also a past state WRC president. The winning essays will be entered in the national patriotic essay contest to be held in August in Grand Rapids.

Chamber requests study

A proposal by the Business District Committee of the Romulus Chamber of Commerce calling for a study of an area from Goddard Road to Five Points and from Grant Road to the I-94 Expressway in Romulus has been approved by a majority of the chamber directors.

Leo M. Kalota, in reporting on the business district committee activity, suggested a communication be sent to the Romulus City Council requesting a $10,000 grant for the improvement study.

Kalota's suggestion was put in the form of an official motion. It was supported by Anthony D. Kopas and approved by the chamber officials.

Hunting upswing

South selects cheerleaders

The 1972-73 cheerleading squads at South Junior High School in Belleville have been selected.

One of the cheerleading squads is formed by ninth graders and the other is combined of seventh and eighth graders.

All of the girls who were interested in becoming a cheerleader attended an after-school clinic in the high school's gymnasium. Two high school cheerleaders, Kitten Florian and Dawn Pyshnik, volunteered their time to teach the proper skills of cheerleading and some spirited chants.

Miss Gwen Buege, seventh and eighth grade sponsor, and Miss Wendy Squelch, ninth grade sponsor, headed the judging for the new fall squads. Other judges were: Mrs. Baribeau, Miss Carolyn Timbers, Miss Cynthia Coleman, Mrs. Lynde Woolace, Miss Debbie Owen, Jack Harris and Foster Eid.

The girls were judged on individual performance, group performance, gymnastic abilities and uniqueness of a creative rhythm pattern. The panel also considered personal appearance, pep and voice control.

The new fall squads have been working hard with candy sales, bake sales and cake raffles. All money is going to pay for part of their tuition to a summer cheerleading instruction session at Eastern Michigan University.

The girls will stay at the university for one week. Their schedule includes getting up at 6 a.m. attending classes throughout the day and a complete evening schedule.

State fair program opened to youths

Young people of Michigan between the ages of 10 and 19 will be given a chance to compete the green thumb way at the 1972 Michigan State Fair.

As a part of the youth Division's expanded program, a "Horticulture and Landscaping" contest and exhibition will be held in the Agricultural Building August 25-29.

Cash prizes will be awarded to the winners of the many classes.

E.J. Keirns, general manager of the Michigan State Fair, stated that the interest in nature and ecology shown by young people is very important for future generations and should be encouraged. It is the 1972 state fair's privilege to reward their efforts.

For entry and rules information, entrants should write: Youth Activites; Michigan State Fair; Woodward and 8 Mile Road; Detroit, Mich. 48203.

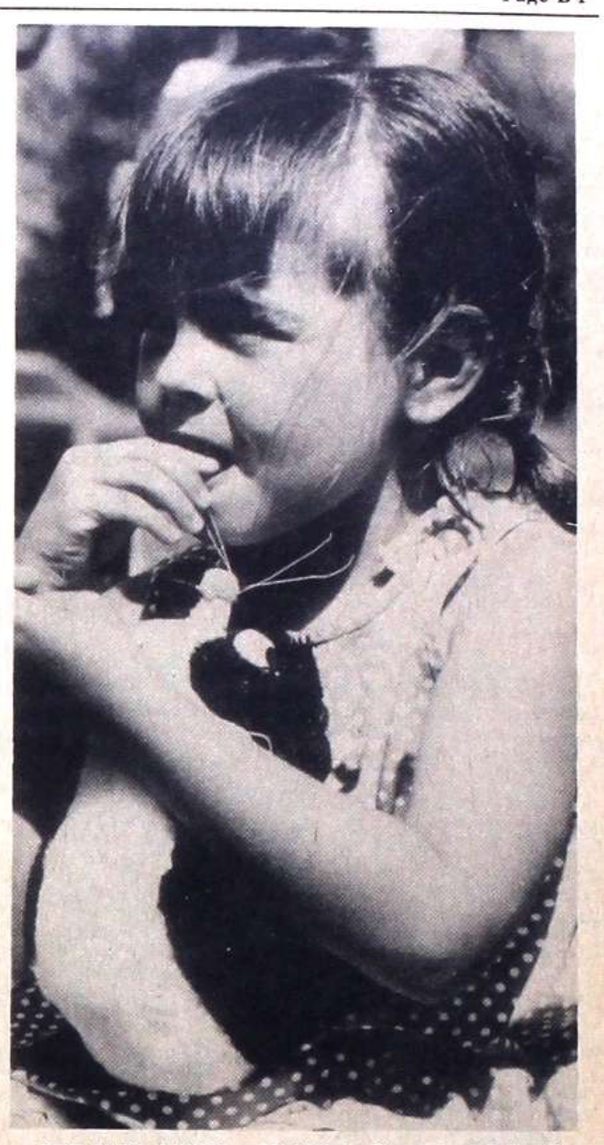
SQUEEZING SQUEAKY — A dog is a man's best friend - and don't ever let anyone tell you differently! Kent Butler, 3½, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fonie Butler of 29 Potter Dr., Belleville, wouldn't trade his Schnauzter, Squeaky, for all the candy in Western Wayne County.

DON'T FORGET ME - Dawn Carollo, 5, of 34833 Malcom, Romulus, doesn't want to get left behind in the Carousel Nursery Animal Parade.



GEE, WILL I WIN? — Michelle LaCross, 4, of Belleville, anxiously watches while the judging takes place, holding her favorite pet skunk (stuffed, of course) in her lap while she chews her finger. No need to worry - all the kids were winners.

HAPPY WITH TEDDY - Five-year-old Paula Brentke and another unidentified youngster watch the animal parade while Paula hugs her Teddy Bear - and her ribbon.

Pets are kings for just a day

There was no better way to end a study of living things for the Carousel Cooperative Nursery of Belleville than to have a real Pet Parade. Enterprise-Roman Photographer Lothar E. Konietzko caught the delight -- and anxious moments -- while the youngsters viewed each other's pets and compared notes.

The month of May was busy for the nursery, which took up the topic of living things, how we grow and what makes us healthy. Seeds and plants were examined first, sea shells and a starfish were brought in, and marigold seeds were planted in pots and grown under everyone's eyes.

Farm animals were discussed with "Ole MacDonald Had a Farm" making everyone's hit parade. To culiminate the study, a pet parade was held at the nursery, located in the Belleville Presbyterian Church, and real and stuffed animals were entered. A receiving stand was set up, where each child could perform with -- or for -- his pet. Show ribbons were given to each participant.

Manners buttons also were awarded each child for "outstanding" performance during the nursery's kindergarten visit to Elwell Elementary School. The youngsters now are looking forward to riding on a school bus everyday.

93.2 per cent taxes collected

The payment by Romulus property owners of their full 1971 tax levy (city, county and school taxes) amounted to 93.2 per cent of the total tax assessment.

Of the $6,103,317 total school and county property tax levy, $4,845,747.77 has been collected in school taxes and $1,257,569.30 in county taxes.

The city's total tax assessment for 1971 amounted to $2,013,677.07. Of this tax levy, the city collected 93.2 percent of the total tax due.

City taxes are due in the summer and the county and school tax levies are due in December.

In 1972, the school district, with the approval of the Romulus City Council, will collect 50 per cent of its property tax assessment and the balance in December.

DOGS, DOGS, DOGS — There were dogs galore, and not all of them could bark, but after all, we can always pretend. Displaying their favorite 'pets' are (back, from left) Patty Nash, Carol Carlson, John Oswald (front, from left) Mrs. Fonie Butler and son, Kent, Joey Smendra, Dawn Carollo and Mrs. Donald Carollo.

The bride is the daughter of Robert Final, Sr. of 2450 McDowell, Ferndale, and Mrs. R. Dennis of 9357 Barry, Romulus. The bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Welch of 37626 Walnut, Romulus.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride appeared in a formal gown of white silk organza and Chantilly lace, the high-rise lace bodice featuring long sleeves and a scalloped scooped neckline.

Her waist-length illusion veil was held by a pearl-studded Chantilly lace headpiece and she carried cascading white carnations, yellow sweetheart roses and baby's breath.

Bridesmaids in similar yellow ensembles were Mrs. Lucille Hensley of Wayne, the bridegroom's sister; and Cindy Dudley of Tennessee and Jennell Dudley of Ferndale, step-sisters of the bride.

John W. Clement of Livonia served as best man and ushers were Robert Final, Jr., David Final, and David Welch, brothers of the bridal pair.

Seven-year old Kurt Final and six-year old Veronica Welch, also members of the family, carried out the roles of ringbearer and flowergirl, respectively. Veronica was dressed in white dotted swiss, the waist encircled with a mint green sash, and the basket she carried was filled with rose petals.

THE V.F.W. Hall in Romulus was reserved for the reception which followed. Some 300 friends and relatives congratulated the young couple who are now making the home at 37500 Castle Drive, Romulus.

A lovelier you

Now's the time for foot care

By MARY SUE MILLER

It's a wise move at this time to give your feet extra thought and care. Particularly if your work keeps you standing or your vacation plans include sightseeing.

Unless your feet are conditioned, they won't tolerate sizzling pavements or just plain heat. They will ache, burn and give you misery. You will feel beat and look it. Why take the chance, when easy precautions keep your feet on the go?

If you are now plagued by corns, bunions or callouses, your first step should be in the direction of a podiatrist. In addition, a visit to a chiropodist for a professional pedicure would aid the cause.

Next comes a check on your footwear. In summer you may require a half-size larger shoe and stocking. Changing both at least once during a day makes for comfort. On a long day's outing, when a change may not be possible, carry a small aerosol of foot refresher spray. A squirt right through your hose cools and revitalizes tired feet.

To minimize discomfort at the outset, massage the feet with mentholated rubbing lotion before donning stockings, and dust the insides of shoes with medicated foot powder. Never, never slip bare feet into daytime shoes; wear footlets when you go stockingless.

But never let a chance go by to cavort barefoot in sand or grass. It's tonic to your feet Gets you on your toes!

LEGLINE TRIMMERS

If your individual problem is heavy legs, send for my new leaflet, LEGLINE TRIMMERS, which contains spot reducing exercises that will meet your individual needs, whether for thighs, knees, calves or ankles, or for contouring your entire legline. Write Mary Sue Miller in care of this newspaper, enclosing a long, stamped, self-addressed envelope and ten cents in coin.

Amy Vanderbilt's etiquette

Divorcee asks about name use

By AMY VANDERBILT

"Dear Miss Vanderbilt: I am a divorcee and the mother of a young child. I used my married name professionally and as a mother found it best to continue to use my married surname after divorce. To combine my maiden name with this surname would be awkward, uneuphonious, unutilitarian socially, legally or professionally. My checks and stationery are marked Mary Miller and magazine subscriptions and some charge accounts read this way. Other charge plates are Mrs. Mary Miller.

"My ex-husband has remarried and is living in the same town. Of couse his new wife is Mrs. Peter Miller. I dislike the Women's Lib Ms. and, where I think necessary, I precede my signatures with (Mrs.) and then write Mary Miller. — Mrs. M.M."

I agree with practically everything you say. Many divorcees now choose to call themselves Mrs. Mary rather than incorporate their maiden names with ther married names because they do work. Having one name in business and another name socially is sometimes difficult. However, your title should appear on everything you mention including charge plates and magazine subscriptions.

My regular readers know by now how I feel about Ms. Why, if some fem libs object to being desinated either as Mrs. or Miss, don't they just have themselves called by their names without any title in the time-honored Quaker fashion. I am never insulated to be addressed as Amy Vanderbilt, but I certainly hate to see mail coming in marked Ms. Amy Vanderbilt instead of Miss. Fortunately, there is very little acceptance of the Ms. Post cards, please.

"Dear Miss Vanderbilt: I realize that housewarmings are generally given by the new owners themselves, but I am wondering if it would be all right for me to arrange a surprise housewarming for some very good friends, letting their adult children in on the secret.--Mrs. S.R."

Housewarmings in some parts of the country are given always as surprise parties by others than the house owners. But it is generally true that they are given by the owners themselves. I think your plan ought to work very well, letting the adult children in on the secret.

(For Amy Vanderbilt's booklet, "Large Parties," send your name and address, plus 75 cents in coin, to: Miss Amy Vanderbilt, (The Daily Eagle) P.O. Box 1066, Weston, Conn. 06880, requesting the booklet by name.)

Millers return from Florida

THE MILLERS — Helen and Gerry — are back from their two week vacation in Florida. Motoring to the East Coast, they were the houseguests of his folks, the Ralph Veseys of Indiatlantic.

During their stay, the Millers and their hosts enjoyed a five-hour cruise on the St. John River and spent a week-end 'doing the tourist-bit'. Heading northward, they visited Silver Springs near Ocala; enjoyed a tour of St. Augustine where the oldest house in America is located; attended the seaworld show at Marineland; had lunch on Mother's Day in Daytona Beach; and went through the Kennedy Space Center.

Enroute home they stopped at Berea College in Kentucky and paid a visit to Helen's brother and sister-in-law, Bill and Mildred Worrell in Middletown, Ohio.

They arrived home Saturday, in time to receive a trans-Atlantic phone call from their son, Jeff, who was in Monaco - part of his three-month tour of Europe.

The following week, John was guest of honor at an open house held at the V.F.W. Hall in Romulus. Assisting his parents with the party were his sister and brother-in-law, Sally and Al Kormos.

Some 150 friends and relatives traveled from Toledo, Ohio; Detroit, Warren, Lincoln Park, Wyandotte, Southgate, New Boston, Romulus, and Belleville and enjoyed a full-course dinner at four o'clock followed by dancing from five to nine.

The honoree s aunt, Lucille Gasidlo, provided the centerpiece for the gift table — a cake made in the shape of an open book with John's pictureon top.

Quality pays off

Long-range value as well as initial cost should be considered in selecting home improvement materials. Often products that cost more at first more than pay for themselves in longer, trouble-free service.

Please note

For newly-engaged couples and for prospective brides, we have printed forms to fill out to announce your betrothal and to enable us to write your wedding story completely and correctly.

If you have any doubt as to what information we require to do a story, these forms list all the pertinent questions.

To obtain either an engagement or bridal questionaire, simply stop by our office, 405 Main St., Belleville, or request one via telephone 697-9191. We'll be happy to mail either form.

We ask that you also bring or send in pictures to accompany either story.

There is no charge for this service.

Some people are meant to be fat

ANN ARBOR—Maybe what fat people have been saying all along is true. They eat more because they are genuinely hungrier than persons of normal weight, says Prof. Richard E. Nisbett, a psychologist at the University of Michigan.

Just as certain people are destined to be tall or bald, Prof. Nisbett suggests that some individuals are "biologically programmed" to be fat. They have a higher baseline of adipose tissue—or fat cells—than others.

"In other words, obesity represents their 'normal' or 'ideal' body composition," he explains.

"When a person of high adipose tissue baseline respond to social and often medical pressure to lose weight, he may pull himself below this physiologically dictated normal weight. Such a person would literally be starving himself."

During his eight years of research, Nisbett has uncovered striking parallels between the behavior of fat people and hungry people. It suggests that many of them, through trying to hold their weight below its set point, have a chronic energy deficit.

For example, Nisbett notes, like the hungry person, the fat person eats more food at a given sitting and eats faster. He also has a great readiness to eat, even in an unfamiliar environment.

Although it was once assumed that hunger makes an individual willing to eat anything, regardless of taste, Nisbett found that food deprivation makes a person more discriminating. Fat persons, too, have highly discriminating food tastes.

"While normal weight persons have been seen to do more and more impulse buying in the supermarket as their state of food deprivation increases, overweight shoppers do a moderate amount of impulse buying regardless of when they last ate.

"The eating habits of the obese seem to reflect a constant, fairly strong degree of hunger," Nisbett states. "Even after they have consumed an amount of food (such as two roast beef sandwiches) that would reduce a normal person's appetite, they behave as if they are still hungry."

Hunger not only influences a person's eating habits, it also has a powerful effect on his emotional conduct, physical activity and sex life, Nisbett says.

In a classic 1950 study of semi-starvation, a group of conscientious objectors volunteered to lose 24 per cent of their body weight over six months, restricting their caloric intake while maintaining normal work routines.

"In the rehabilitation period that followed, the subjects progressively more prone to emotional upset, more apathetic and inactive, and less interested in sex," Nisbett relates. "Their irritability and outbursts of temper became so frequent that group meetings had to be curtailed. They grew sluggish and indifferent toward work and sex; about 90 per cent stopped going out with women.

They were allowed to eat as much as they wanted. Like the obese persons described earlier, it was not uncommon for the men to eat all their stomachs could hold, and yet report they were still hungry and desired more."

A variety of studies have shown overweight individuals are more emotional than those of normal weight. Nisbett's view is that the emotional disturbance exists when the person is below his biological set point. Accordingly, when such a person tries to reduce weight, his emotional state will further deteriorate.

Researchers also observe that overweight persons spend far less time in sports or strenuous activity than their normal weight counterparts. Nisbett notes that this is not just a cause but a result of their condition. And though there is less data on the fat person's sexual motivation, Nisbett adds, the findings that do exist suggest that it is remarkably low, paralleling that of the hungry person.

"Not all overweight persons display these hunger symptoms," the U-M psychologist stresses. "Those who have reached their base level for fat cells should behave like normal persons. On the other hand, anyone, overweight or normal, who is below his base level, will probably feel and behave as if he is hungry."

If a person has a relatively high baseline of adipose tissue, he appears to be stuck with it, Nisbett concludes. Research shows that an individual has a given number of fat cells, and he can neither increase that number through overeating nor decrease it through dieting, Nisbett says. Eating habits can temporarily alter the size of each cell, but cannot change their number.

Nisbett's findings suggest a need to reconsider the assumption that the obese are guilty of gluttony and lack of will power. "It is very plausible that many of them, particularly the moderately and formerly overweight, suffer a chronic energy deficit and hunger."

Scouts, families invited to tour Camp Linden facilities Sunday

The Huron Valley Girl Scout Council is inviting Girl Scouts, their families and the public to an open house at Camp Linden on Sunday, June 4, from 1 to 4 p.m.

Camp Linden is the Girl Scouts' resident camp, a 430-acre site located north of Hartland in Livingston County. It is reached by travelling north on U.S. 23, west on Highway 59, north on Argentine Road and west on Hogan Road.

Open House Chairman Ann Wood reports three new structures will be on display that day, Hunter Lodge, the cook's cabin and a new tent platform unit.

Hunter Lodge is the camp dining hall, built this past year at a cost of $150,000, a gift of the combined Earhart family of Ann Arbor. The dining hall is the largest of the buildings at the camp and can accomodate 200 campers.

The building was designed by Donald D. MacMullen & Associates of Ann Arbor to also be used as a lodge for indoor activities such as square dancing and dramatics.

A new cook's cabin now being constructed by the Plymouth Kiwanis Club also can be inspected.

The new tent platform unit is made up of 10 platforms and brings the total number of tent platforms at the camp to 40, a capacity of 160 girls.

The platforms were constructed by the Seabee Reserve Unit of Lansing under the command of Lt. Com. C.H. Seegar.

Other facilities which can be visited are three troop cagins, Ruth's House, Edith's House and Esther's House, all named for prominent Girl Scout volunteers.

The troop houses sleep 24-36 girls and are equipped with kitchenettes, fireplaces and dormitory meeting rooms. The waterfront and Baird Boathouse also can be toured.

In addition to touring the camp, visitors can talk with camp staffers to learn more about Camp Linden. This summer, for the first time, the camp will offer two one-week sessions in addition to four traditional two-week sessions.

The one-week sessions have been set up in response to requests from Girl Scouts throughout the Huron Valley Council's territory which includes Washtenaw and Livingston counties and Western Wayne and Northern Monroe counties.

Persons wishing more information about Camp Linden or the open house are asked to call the huron Valley Girl Scout Council at 483-2370.

Follow AAA safety tips when biking this year

With the advent of the bicycle season upon us, the Enterprise-Roman is publishing a list of safety hints for the young and old who will take to their bikes during the summer season.

The tips, put out by the American Automobile Association (AAA) are:

——Signal for turns and stops.

——Obey all traffic signs, signals and rules.

——Yield the right of way to pedestrains.

——Drive solo-only one on a bicycle.

——Keep feet on the pedals at all times.

——Keep both hands on the handlebars, except when signaling.

——Drive with traffic in single file - close to the right-hand side of the roadway and watch for opening car doors.

——Keep your bicycle in good repair.

——Equip your bicycle with headlight, reflector and horn or bell.

——Always walk bicycle across busy intersections.

——Drive carefully, especially on wet or slippery streets.

——Keep safe following distance - never hitch onto other moving vehicles.

——Be sure roadway is clear before entering. Avoid busy streets and intersections.

——Learn to drive in a safe place, keep off busy streets until you can drive well.

Safety director suggests boat owners take course

There's much more to handling a boat than just flipping the key or manning the tiller, Don Costa Safety Director of the Allstate Insurance Companies, advises new boatowners.

Take a course in small craft operation from the U.S. Power Squadrons, Coast Guard Auxiliary or Red Cross. Each has local units throughout the country which you can contact.

Practice proper boating techniques under the guidance of an experienced operator before taking the helm yourself. "Going out alone is definitely not recommended," Costa points out.

Good seamanship demands adherence to the nautical rules of the road. Know when to keep clear. Learn the differences between right-of-way rules on rivers and in open water.

Know the meanings of buoys, running lights and passing signals to other boats. Recognizing and complying with all aids to navigation is especially important to a small boat skipper.

Keep an alert lookout. This practice not only averts collisions with other boats but with objects in the water which could damage your hull or propeller.

A knowledge of the waters in which you're boating will forewarn you of hazardous or congested conditions. Make it a habit to refer to a handy chart of your area.

Assist boats in distress. An inverted ensign, fire on board, waving a white flag, flares, beaming a light skyward and continuous sounding of a fog horn or whistle are all distress signals.

School will miss cafeteria worker

Rawsonville Road Elementary School in Belleville won't be quite the seme without the face of Mrs. Dorothy Hanson around next year.

Mrs. Hanson, who has been with the Van Buren schools for the last 17 years - 14 in the Rawsonville Road Elementary School - is retiring at the end of the school year. Mrs. Hanson has been a member of the cafeteria staff at the school.

She and her husband, Osborn, who retired a few years ago, now are looking forward to traveling about the country, visiting relatives and friends and enjoying their well-deserved leisure.

The Hansons have a son, Don, who is band director in the Taylor schools. He is married and is the father of two children. The Hansons also have a daughter, Marti, who is married and employed as a paraprofessional in Grass Lake.

Mrs. Hanson will have time now to indulge herself in hobbies which include sewing, crocheting and knitting, and there will time, too, for gardening.

The hours of the Vacation Bible School will be from 9:30 to 11:30 a.m.

West, northwest phone books will be combined

Residents served by Michigan Bell in communities covered by the West and Northwest area telephone directories have indicated they prefer a single telephone book for their combined area.

Eugene L. Greek, local Michigan Bell manager, said the company's statistical research group mailed questionnaires to representative samples of both residential and business customers in the West and Northwest communities asking their directory preferences.

Based on survey findings, Greek said the calling and shopping patterns of customers in the areas covered by the two directories would be adequately met by a single directory.

Consequently, he said, the 1973 directory to be distributed next spring will be a combined West-Northwest area directory.

That directory will include the white pages listings for the same 23 communities found in the current books.

The West-Northwest area yellow pages will consist of one interfiled, classified list of all business customers who presently appear in the Northwest area and West area yellow pages.

The area coverage of the yellow pages next year will be Belleville, Farmington, Garden City, Livonia, Northville, Plymouth, Romulus, Wayne and Westland, and parts of Farmington Township, Inkster, Novi and Wixom.

The only change to be found in the combined directory will be the community of New Boston. Those with New Boston service will be transferred from the current West area book to the Downriver directory. The Downriver directory name will not change.

Bus drivers, custodian will retire in Van Buren

The retirement of two Van Buren school bus drivers and a member of the school district's custodial department have been announced. The resignations are effective at the end of the current school year.

The retirements are:

Leland (Dutch) Fry of 38 Angola St., Belleville, who has worked in the school system for the last 12 years as a painter and building custodian. Previous to working for the school district, Fry, who was born in McComb, Ohio, owned and operated several gasoline stations in the Belleville area.

Fry and his wife, Mary, are the parents of two children and four grandchildren. His plans for the future are rather indefinite, but he hopes to visit friends in Arizona next winter.

The two bus drivers are Mike Habel of 43485 Bemis Rd., Belleville, and Elmer Roeser of 39611 Ecorse Rd., Wayne.

Habel has been a school bus driver for the last 22 years. He and his wife, Helen, have four children and nine grandchildren.

The Habels plan to spend much of their time in northern Michigan, where they own a cottage.

Kaulitz to be board's rep

Van Buren School Supt. Dale E. Kaulitz has been appointed the Van Buren Board of Education representative at future meetings of the Wayne County Association of School Boards.

Kaulitz will represent the school district at the association's sessions relative to adoption of common objectives for negotiations in 1972.

Participation sought by county in lottery

Wayne County's Board of Commissioners is seeking county participation in the state lottery which was authorized by the voters inthe May 16 presidential primary election.

In a resolution adopted May 18, the commissioners asked to be invited to participate in the planning and conduct of the lottery in return for a proportionate share of lottery revenues derived from Wayne County. The resolution notes the county is "clothed by law with the powers and duties of the state at the local level."

The people of Wayne County are proportionately entitled to a fair share of said revenues for their public needs," the resolution states.

Use of lottery revenues specifically for such facilities as hospitals, youth homes, child development centers, other capital improvements and school purposes is "strongly recommended" in the resolution.

The county bid for participation was recommended by the Public Works Committee of the Board of Commissioners. The final resolution also incorporated lottery-related proposals made in separate resolutions by two Detroit commissioners - Paul Silver (D-Dist. 11) and Eugene A. Sikora (D-Dist. 7).

Also approved was a Public Works Committee resolution urging the State Legislature to permit parimutuel dog racing in Michigan as another revenue source. The resolution was submitted by Public Works Chairman Thomas P O'Rourke of Detroit (D-Dist. 14).

Members of the Public Works Committee are, in addition to O'Rouke, John Lesinski, Dearborn, (D-Dist. 20)) vice-chairman; James DeSana, Wyandotte, (D-Dist. 23); Huey A. Ferguson, Detroit (D-Dist. 5); James R. McCartney, Westland, (D-Dist. 25); and Michael J. Novak, Detroit, (D-Dist. 1).

Sportsmen group decries violence

The Sportsmen's Alliance of Michigan, in response to the shooting of Gov. George C. Wallace, has issued a statement calling for "swift punishment for crimes involving the illegal use of weapons of all kinds."

"The deplorable, unwarranted action on Gov. Wallace demands action on the part of our national leaders, since it has been clearly demonstrated by the failure of the 1968 Gun Control Act that such suppression is worse than useless," the statement said.

Following a May 17 meeting, the group decided "the time has long since passed for firm and sensible action in the field of crime and violence."

The group has called for:

— Mandatory death penalty for those who murder heads of government, policemen and firemen in the performance of their duties.

— No bail for those accused of murder.

— Additional mandatory sentences for those found guilty of crime or violence while in the personal possession of fire arms or explosives.

Program offered for supervisors

Public employee supervisors from 50 Michigan cities, counties and townships are enrolled in the first major training program under the Federal Intergovernmental Personnel Act designed to improve the quality of public personnel administration.

More than 900 will participate in programs under way or to be offered in 11 major cities through June, according to Donald J. Willis, Michigan IPA, coordinator. Sessions are scheduled in Grand Rapids, Kalamazoo, Flint, Ann Arbor, Pontiac, Detroit, Warren, Battle Creek, East Lansing, Dearborn and Highland Park.

Willis said the type of training offered was determined by a survey of city managers, county administrators and personnel managers.

Van Buren Township Fire Department 2 reported 13 fire runs during the month of April.

The fire runs included two false alarms, two car fires, four grass fires, one farm tractor fire, one outside gas storage tank fire, one house fire and one assistance run on behalf of Fire Deparment 1.

Restaurant-lounge site in Van Buren revealed

Jack Begin, an applicant for one of three Class C liquor licenses alloted to Van Buren Township by the Michigan Liquor Control Commission, has announced a location for his proposed restaurant-bar.

Begin, who lives at 615 Harley St., Belleville, told the township board last week that the location is a three-acre parcel, located on Belleville Road, just north and east of Main Street bridge.

Construction of the restaurant-cocktail lounge is dependent upon local and state approval of his liquor license application.

Begin appeared before the township board some weeks ago with preliminary plans for the construction of the proposed establishment but was requested to inform the township board of its location.

He must submit his plans to the township building department for review. The board deferred action pending the building department's inspection of his plans.

The township was allotted three additional Class licenses based on an increase in the population of the township as reflected in the 1970 U.S. Census.

The board's action, if and when announced, would be an approval or rejection recommendation to the MLCC.

Industrial development committee requested

A proposal calling for the formation of a committee to be known as the Van Buren Township Industrial Development Committee has been presented to the township board.

Ben Robertson, appointed by the board as the township's first industrial coordinator, presented the proposal to the board at its May 23 meeting.

In making his proposal, Robertson stated:

"The purpose of the committee would be to conduct an aggressive program for the economic and civic growth and development of the township, to encourage the expansion of existing business and industry, to promote the acquisition of new business and industry and in general to contribute to the advancement and growth of the community for the benefit of its citizens."

Robertson requested the township board appoin' interested and qualifiea persons to the committee. He suggested the committee consist of not less than five and not more than nine persons, including the industrial coordinator.

Township Trustee Joseph Hogan made a motion to table the proposal until the June 13 meeting of the township board since three board members were absent. His motion was approved.

CERAMIC TILE DOES IT — Ceramic tile makes one of the most attractive and practical planters and backdrop for plants (above). Water and dirt won't stain the tile and it cleans with ease. This decorative planter wall features a design of large circles created by combining arc-patterned glazed tiles. A ceramic tile floor (below) offers quality and decorative appeal befitting the most lavish living rooms and luxurious homes. According to the Tile Council of America, it never needs to be replaced and requires a minimum of care to remain fresh and new looking ... a big contrast to the customary carpeting. This large, informal living room is enhanced by a light-tone hexagonal quarry tile, accented by a colorful circular area rug which can be changed with the season with little cost.

Latex foam rubber makes upholstering a simple chore

By ANDY LANG

The versatility of latex foam rubber has turned the once-difficult task of upholstering into a reasonably simple chore for most persons.

Whether it be the replacement of seatchairs and backs or the recushioning of sofas, the task has been eased considerably because the do-it-yourselfer need no longer struggle with the variables of loose stuffing. By selecting a solid sheet or slab of foam rubber as the replacement material—buying it to size or cutting it himself—he bypasses what used to be the most worrisome part of the project.

Foam rubber is made from liquid latex rubber, given a chemical treatment, whipped to a froth, baked in molds under heat and pressure and, finally, washed and dried. It is the whipping process that produces the thousands of air cells which make it soft, lightweight, durable and easy to handle.

While there are special commercial sizes, the foam rubber the home handyman uses is available in thicknesses ranging from one quarter of an inch to 6 inches. In the smaller thicknesses—up to 2 inches—it comes without holes or cores and is used primarily where relatively thin padding is required, such as on the arms and backs of straight chairs or as window seat cushions. The larger sizes usually are known as pincore foam and have numerous pencil-thick holes running through them. They come flat or crowned to make thick, rounded, extra-plump cushions.

There are several keys to achieving good results with foam rubber. Here are some of them:

Foam up to 2 inches thick can be cut with ordinary scissors. Thicker pieces should be cut with a bandsaw or an upholsterer's electric knife. If you want the dealer to cut it to size, bring in a pattern, remembering that the cut should be an extra one-half inch around all sides of the pattern.

Ordinary fabricating cement, the type found in most offices, is excellent for foam rubber. For extra binding strength, use two coats of cement on both the rubber and the tacking tape. When the second coat has dried enough to become tacky, join the two surfaces. Allow at least one hour for the cemented pieces to set.

Fabric to be placed over the foam rubber should be ironed first.

When the covering fabric is to be leather or plastic, first cover the foam rubber with muslin. With either of these materials or with a very tightly woven material, allow some kind of opening for air circulation.

Foam rubber once was difficult to purchase. Today it is sold in department stores, catalog and mail order houses, specialty dealer and upholstery suppliers.

(Sweating windows and walls, squeaky floors and noisy plumbing are among the 35 subjects discussed in Andy Lang's helpful handbook, "Practical Home Repairs," available by sending $1 to this newspaper in care of Box 5, Teaneck, N.J., 07666.)

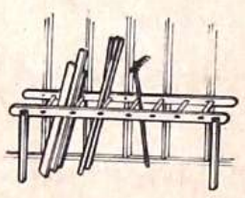
Old ladders make great storage bins

By AL CARRELI

Dear Al:

A weak or an old straight ladder should be retired. However, I didn't throw mine away. I have used it in my garage to make storage bins. I attached it to the studs so it is parallel to the floor and about three feet up the wall. It is attached with lag screws and legs are added to the two outside corners. The sections between the rungs provide bins in which to store lumber, pipes, and other long objects in an upright position. This keeps the wood off the floor, and thus protects it from moisture. I even put long-handled tools in one section.

D.R.G.



By putting it at an angle along the wall, it could accommodate more different lengths. Also if the entire ladder is too long, cut it into two pieces.

Dear Al:

The trunk lid on my car leaked, and after several trips to the dealer with no results, I decided to track down the leak myself. I coated the rubber weatherstripping with talcum powder. By closing the trunk lid and re-opening it, the talc showed immediately where the contact was not being made. It was then an easy job to raise the rubber strip at that point and shim it up with more adhesive.

G.A.F.

A super hint - A friend saves all the wax milk cartons from the kitchen. He cuts them into flat sections, and then rubs one over various surfaces when the surface needs to be lubricated before using. Each time he gets ready to run wood through his table saw, he rubs the surface with a piece of milk carton and waxes the metal table. If he is going to use a hand saw, he lubes the blade. Wax in the teeth of a file prevents clogging. After a section is used once, it's discarded.

Dear Al:

Out of all the substitutes for penetrating oil that your readers have suggested, I needed some and didn't have iodine, lemon juice, hydrogen peroxide or anything else that would unstick a rusted bolt. I used my propane torch and let the heat expand the metal. The heat was applied to the nut, then I immediately put the wrench to it. It broke loose.

P.T.E.

Quick answers for harried handymen: To M.L.G — Your drain pipe just doesn't slope properly for the water to run out with enough force. It just trickles and drops grease and garbage along the way. It will naturally build up at the curved place. The next time you have to dismantle the pipes, replace some part with a clean out plug. This will eliminate the chore of dismantling and then having to reapply oakum and lead each time the grease holds to the point it stops up the drain ... To D.D.E. — If your uneven concrete patio is sound and has no cracks, the low places can be eliminated by resurfacing. Be sure to use a bonding agent and let your resurfacing layer be at least ½ inch. If the slab is cracked, the resurfacing will eventually crack, too. So fix the cracks before you resurface.

Al Carrell welcomes all mail, especially tips from fellow Handymen which he can pass on to readers as space permits. While he cannot answer all individual letters, he will try to nail down your problem in his column whenever possible.

Homeowners should be wary of itinerants

All homeowners, particularly the elderly, should be very wary this time of the year and not fall prey to the usual invasion of the itinerant home repair man.

It has been reported to the bureau a large number of the "itinerants," who arrive in the area about this time of year have staked out in a Detroit suburb. Almost simultaneously, the first complaint from one of our elderly citizens reached the bureau office. She had been victimized.

The method followed is the same as reported to us each year. Several workmen appear on a street in a panel pick-up truck with equipment consisting of a tank, hose and sealing material. They offer to resurface roofs, driveways or repair chimneys.

Our complainant said they offered to put a sealer on a small dormer section of her house. They went on the roof, one of the men immediately came down and reported that the chimney flue was blocked and was a fire hazard. He frightened her even more by saying that if the fire department checked, they would condemn the property.

They then offered to use a vinyl seal at $10.50 a gallon, which they felt would only need a couple of gallons, to correct the problem. The result was a bill for $230 for about 20 gallons of the sealer plus the dormer work.

After the men left, our complainant began to question in her own mind why a sealer would be used to open a blocked area. She asked an expert to check the chimney and he found it was not blocked. The workmen had put a small quantity of the black material around the top of the chimney and covered a small area of the dormer and collected a check for $230.

Here is a good check list to follow before agreeing for work with an unknown company or individuals.

—Obtain the name and address of the firm.

—Ask for the names and addresses of previous customers. (Take time to check with them.)

—Secure estimates from at least two other firms for the identical work.

—Study a copy of the contract, be sure all promises are included, understand all the terms and conditions.

—Do not fall for a price that seems too low. It might be the most costly.

—Call the police department and find out if the firm has a permit to do business in the community.

—Do not accept a story that "we just happened to be in your neighborhood with extra materials."

—When in doubt, check with the Better Business Bureau. If the bureau does not have a file on the firm, wait until information can be developed.

Use your dollars to have work done by the reliable contractor who will be around if there is any question about the work. Many thousands of dollars are taken out of the community each year by the "itinerants."

Americans respect traditional

There's a growing respect for traditional American homes. Perhaps it's a backlash against the dizzying changes taking place in the world.

Whatever the reason, many families are taking an interest in authentic American architecture, whether it's center-hall Colonial, 19th Century farmhouse, or turn-of-the-century Victorian. Some very fine reproductions of American Colonial homes are being built, and many an old, rundown house is being snatched up and lovingly restored.

Brand new or restored, the old-style homes people move into today are better in many ways than the originals. They have conveniences, comfort and safety features our ancestors never dreamed of. Now, homes are insulated, centrally heated and even air conditioned. Push-button kitchen appliances and automatic laundry equipment simplify home care. Today's building products are more durable and easier to maintain than those used in homes of old. They're safer too.

Roofing is an example. Many builders and modernizers of Early American homes use heavyweight asphalt shingles, which weigh 290 pounds or which weigh 290 pounds or more per 100 square feet of applied roofing area. In a natural tone, and with a rich-textured surface, some heavyweight have a hand-hewn appearance, yet are fire-resistant and designed to last up to 25 years. Self-sealing heavyweight asphalt shingles are also wind-resistant.

NEW TAYLOR FACILITY — The Peoples Community Hospital Authority last night approved final design development plans for the PCHA's fifth health care facility to be located in Taylor. This architect's rendering illustrates what the proposed 236-bed, $18 million facility will look like when completed around 1975.

For new Taylor hospital

PCHA okays design

The Peoples Community Hospital Authority (PCHA) last night gave the go-ahead to its architects to proceed with drawing up construction documents for the $18 million Taylor hospital facility.

The final design development plans for the proposed 326-bed hospital were okayed at the board meeting following a slide presentation by Edward Matthei of the architectural firm of E. Todd Wheeler and the Perkins and Will Partnership of Michigan.

The board action marks the completion of the third phase of the architectural development program for the PCHA's fifth health care facility. The next phase will include working drawings, final specifications and bid proposal forms.

If everything goes according to schedule, the board hopes to go out for bids by April 1, 1973, with construction to begin a few months later. Completion date has been set for Nov. 1, 1975.

The projected cost for the hospital was originally $18,089,000, but dropped to $17,966,000. The savings, however, were offset by problems with off-site development, which added another $215,000 to the cost, plus preliminary site work of an additional $100,000.

The total budget for the facility now is estimated at $18,471,000, including on.site additive alternates, a heliport landing pad, planting and gravel beds and building additive alternates, all of which can be eliminated if the bids come in too high.

Architectural fees will cost about $380,000.

Mathei explained that although no other PCHA hospital has a heliport (they do have helicopter landing sites, however) he predicted that within five years, when the hospital should be completed, they will be in use regularly by most hospitals.

In other action, the board approved a report from its legal counsel regarding that a proposal from the City of Trenton requesting a 5 per cent interest payment of the total accumulated amount of each city's PCHA assessment.

According to the lawyer, such a "dividend" is not legally feasible or possible.

The auditing firm of Arthur Young and Co. also presented a report on an inquiry from last month's meeting on the possibility of reducing the millage rates after the new Annapolis and Outer Drive additions and the Taylor facility are completed.

According to the auditor, by 1979 sufficient funds would be available for deposit in the debt service reserve fund to meet the bond ordinance requirements, thus enabling the board to reduce the .4 millage if it chose to do so.

The board instructed its attorney to seek a ruling from the Ingham County Circuit Court regarding whether the use of arbitration in the grievance procedure with hourly rates employes would be illegal. The board is seeking a court opinion on a ruling handed down by Atty. Gen. Frank J. Kelley prohibiting the board from entering into arbitration.

According to the legal counsel, the courts have not been supporting Kelley's opinion, but the board wants a definite answer. The question is a major one in the board's negotiations with the hourly employes of the four hospitals.

Executive Director Dr. Karl S. Klicka was asked to provide the board with a preliminary report by next month's meeting on the feasibility of starting a kidney machine program at a PCHA facility. Dr. Klicka said such an idea had been investigated two years ago, but vetoed. He indicated he would look into it again to check on the need for such a program in areas served by PCHA facilities.

Federal funds sought by Van Buren officials

A communication to the Michigan Department of Commerce in Lansing requesting that Van Buren Township be considered when 701 Program planning funds are made available by the federal government has been authorized by the Township Board.

The 701 program grants for township development involves two-thirds federal funds and one-third township funds. The township would be under no obligation to accept the funds.

Parkins, Rogers and Associates Inc. of Detroit, township planning consultants, suggested to the township board it send a communication to Lansing asking to be considered when and if such funds become available.

In its communication the board reported the township has been involved in long-range planning since 1960. A comprehensive development plan, zoning ordinance and subidivision regulations were prepared under the 701 program in the 1960's.

Between 1960-70 the township increased in population from 9,509 to 13,162. Presently, the township is in the path of rapid development with an expected growth to 33,700 by 1980.

"If the township is to maintain a sound development policy, long-range planning must be updated. In order to update our long-range plans, the 701 program is necessary to our community," the township's communication said.

The updating of the plans would mean approximate spending of $20,000 it was reported.

Township officials requested that Van Buren Township be among those communities which are considered when 701 monies become available.

Minority bank deposits asked

Acting on a proposal submitted by Wayne County Commissioner Edward Jones, the County Board of Commissioners is asking that "every effort be made to increase the deposit of county funds in banks owned by minority groups."

The commissioners passed the resolution at a recent meeting, hoping to make more money available for the increase and expansion of minority businesses.

Currently, Wayne County has funds deposited in seven banks, one of which is the black-owned First Independence Bank, in which the county has deposited almost $127,000.

The resolution also asks the County Board of Auditors also to consider depositing in banks outside the City of Detroit and requests compliance "to the greatest degree feasible and practical."

Van Buren backs Huron resolution

A resolution recently adopted by the Huron Township Board of Trustees opposing the construction of Detroit's $126 million riverfront domed stadium has received the support of the Van Buren Township Board.

The Van Buren board unanimously approved a motion to support the intent of the Huron resolution without giving financial support. Trustee Joseph Hogan offered the motion, with support from Trustee Jerry Maton.

Huron Township had joined the City of Belleville in opposing the proposed stadium.

Mayor Royce E. Smith of Belleville and two Grosse Pointe Woods investment counselors initiated a Wayne County Circuit Court suit for an injunction preventing the construction of the proposed stadium.

The Huron Township resolution, which was presented to the Van Buren board on May 23, supported the legal position of the City of Belleville and Mayor Smith in their battle against Wayne County Board of Commissioners, who are attempting to divert bonding power and taxes of the county to develop the proposed stadium, in lieu of pursuing the needs for services of health, welfare and safety for the children of Wayne County."

The court suit, which got underway before Judge Blair Moody Jr. last Tuesday, seeks a court order preventing the county from guaranteeing the $126 million bond issue with tax money.

The suit contends that the sale of the bonds to underwrite the stadium amounts to public funding of a private business.
